WEATHER.

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau.
Toledo, O., May 24, 1892.

The storm which was central on the middle Atlantic coast has moved to the northeast during the past 24 hours and is central over the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

The conditions over the west and northwest are unsettled, and are favorable for the development of a storm.

The weather over the states south of the Ohio river and from Texas eastward is fair. Over the west and northwest, lake region and New England, the weather is cloudy or raining.

The temperature has risen over the upper and lower Mississippi valleys; and fallen over the Dakotas; elsewhere it has remained nearly stationary.

Rains have been heaviest over Minnesota and in all other sections have been light.

Pittsburg reports a light frost this morning. Winds on the lakes are generally from the west and southwest and are brisk.

The Mississipp river at New Orleans has reached its highest point of the season and is rising.

Forecast for Toledo and vicinity for 36 hours—On Tuesday fair, warmer, probably followed by rain to-morrow.

E. A. HANNER, Observer.

Ohio—Generally fair, followed Wednesday by light showers on the lakes; slightly warmer; southerly winds.

Indiana and Illinois—Showers north; fair, followed by showers south; slightly warmer to-night; cooler Wednesday; southwest winds.

Michigan and Wisconsin—Light showers; cooler Wednesday; southwest winds, becoming northwesterly.

The Blaine Talk Will Not Down

Ohio's Sky-Rocket Politician Will Not Deny that He Will Nominate the Man from Maine at Minneapolis.

New York, May 24.—(Special)—Will Blaine write another letter declining to be a candidate? Some people say he will; others say he will not. If he does not there are many who think he will be nominated. Mr. Blaine arrived in New York yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Blaine, and was driven directly to the Fifth Avenue hotel.

As the secretary, with his wife on his arm, passed upward to the rooms set apart for them, there was much speculation among the scribes as to whether he would be visible to them again during the evening.

Mr. Blaine kindly relieved them of all suspense by sending word that he would be pleased to meet them all in a room adjoining those prepared for him. In a few minutes after his arrival he was the center of a group of reporters, whom he greeted pleasantly. As he stood there, straight as an arrow, with a clear eye and vigorous expression, seemingly conscious that his every movement was being critically noted, there was nothing to indicate that anything but that of a man in complete health.

His voice was strong and clear, and as he moved about, shaking hands with those closest to him, he stepped briskly, as if to show that he was physically equipped for any emergency. When asked the object of his visit, he said: "I will be frank with you, boys. I intend to treat you fairly, as I have found the newspaper men always treat me fairly. My visit here has no political significance whatever. I am here for several reasons, all of which are of a private nature, and have no relations to politics or public business."

"Is it true that your visit here is for the purpose of having an operation performed on your eyes?" was asked.

"Yes, that is one of the reasons."

"Not," he added quickly, "that it is an absolute necessity, but I concluded that it would be a good thing to do. Another reason which I am glad to say induced me to visit New York was my desire to see my little granddaughter."

When asked with reference to his health, Mr. Blaine, with a smile, said: "I am just as well as I look, and I don't believe that I look like a confirmed invalid, do I?" and he laughed good naturedly.

His smile was infectious and everyone caught it and looked happy. His appearance and his pleasant greeting put everyone in good humor, and after a few common-place remarks the crowd retired. The apparent readiness of his invitation to the newspaper fraternity was taken as an evidence of his willingness and anxiety to show the public that he was again a well man and able to bear the burdens of presidential honors. When it became generally known that he had granted an audience to the press, everyone accepted it as an omen of acceptance on his part. Consequently much jubilation prevailed among the republican politicians of small and high degree, who were about the hotel.

But in the matter of politics the secretray of state was silent. He would neither deny nor affirm his intention of accepting the nomination if it was offered him.

Who Wrote the Letter?

In this political question Chauncey M. Depew, in an interview in regard to the alleged letter from General Grant to Senator Conkling, which was made public in Columbus, O., Saturday, said:

"It is an infamous forgery, there is no doubt of it in my mind, and it is put forth at this time for the sole purpose of injuring President Harrison's chance of renomination."

"What will be the effect of the letter?" Mr. Depew was asked.

"It will act as a boomerang. It will injure the men who inspired it: It is a most audacious forgery, and a most ingenious one. I do not recall one that was its counterpart since the forgery of the Morey letter.."

"What will the effect of the letter be?"

"It will utterly fail of its purpose because its spuriousness is so palpable. It of course attempts to show that Mr. Conkling sacrificed Grant against his wishes, for his own advantage and his ends of personal revenge. Now, any one who knew Roscoe Conkling, and was familiar with events at that time, knows that that was not true. Mr. Conkling and I were not particularly good friends during the latter years of his life, but I know that he did not act as that letter would indicate."

"Do you know anything of your knowledge which would show the letter to be a forgery?"

"Yes. I had a talk to-day with a man who arranged Mr. Conkling's entire correspondence after his death, and that letter was not among them. I can't imagine who inspired the forgery. I would like to see it run down. If genuine—which I do not for an instant believe—it is an important thing; if not, it is equally interesting as a fraud."

View of George C. Graham.

Hon. George C. Graham, in a letter to the Sun, says: "I think every intelligent reader will concede that the pretended letter bears on its face unmistakable evidence of being bogus. I will not call it a counterfeit, because it bears not the slightest resemblance to anything ever written by Gen. Grant.

Foraker's Bugle Blast.

Cincinnati, O., May 24.—Ex-Gov. Foraker to-night in answer to an inquiry as to the truth of the report that he was to make the speech in the convention nominating James G. Blaine for the presidency, said:

"I do not know anything about such a report, and have never said that I would nominate Mr. Blaine." Then thinking a moment, as if not content to leave the matter in such an unsatisfactory state, he added: "I have said, however, that in my judgment Mr. Blaine should be nominated and it is my opinion that he will be nominated."

"Your answer does not say you will not make the nominating speech, but only that you have never said that you would," was suggested by way of getting a more explicit statement.

"It is sufficient," he replied, "to indicate plainly what is my preference for president."

Ex-Gov. Foraker has furnished a statement of his views of the republican political situation written by himself. He says among other things: I don't know much about the Sherman movement beyond what I see in the newspapers; but manifestly there are a good many republicans who are disposed to favor him in preference to Harrison, especially in New York, Pennsylvania and the New England states. I think if it should come to a test between Harrison and Sherman, the senator would have practically the solid support of Ohio; but I do not expect to see that come to pass. It is my opinion that Mr. Blaine will be nominated. His letter does not rule him out, except only in the sense of becoming a candidate. That he will not be and has not been. His letter was sincere and appropriate. It showed appreciation of the situation and loyalty to his chief; but when it comes to the matter of making a president, the party has a right to be heard.

Shut the door against disease. Danger comes oftenest through impure blood. Keep your blood in order, and you keep in health. For this, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood, and rouses every organ into healthy action. By this means it cures. Every part of the system feels its saving influence. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Scrofulous, Skin and Scalp Diseases—even Consumption (or Lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages, all yield to it. It's the only Liver, Blood and Lung Remedy that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is refunded. Trying terms to sell on—but it's a medicine that can carry them out.

Can anything else, at any price, be really as cheap?

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion.

It's a concentrated vegetable extract; put up in large bottles; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children.

EIGHTY-SIX K. P. LODGES

Added to the Roster of Ohio's Grand Jurisdiction,

And a Total Increase of About Seven Thousand.

Made for the Past Year Under Grand Chancellor Williams—Splendid Report of His Stewardship—Toledo Honored.

Columbus, May 24.—(Special)—The twenty-fourth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Ohio Knights of Pythias assembled in the Board of Trade rooms this morning at 10 o'clock, with nearly 700 representatives in attendance, Grand Chancellor Williams in the chair.

Prof. Laxenby, of the Ohio State university, in behalf of the local knights, welcomed the Grand Lodge in a happy speech, and was followed for the city by ex-Mayor Bruck. A suitable response was made by Grand Chancellor Williams, and the rest of the morning was taken up in examination of credentials and getting ready for business.

Past Chancellor C. C. Reel, for the Columbus knights, presented an ivory gavel to Col. Williams, as a souvenir of the occasion.

Finance—J. W. Greene, 137, Toledo; Chas. J. Deckman, No. 294; E. A. Tucker, No. 2; W. W. Gunther, No. 28; John C. Geyer, No. 176.

Laws and Supervision—John W. Winn, No. 207; W. D. James, No. 370; L. W. Ellenwood, No. 82; Geo. M. Skiles, No. 392; B. M. Campbell, No. 154.

State of the Order—D. J. Dalton, No. 8; Wm. M. Ault, No. 57; D. P. W. Eylar, No. 114; John Meyer, No. 458; A. J. Sherman, No. 144.

Charters—Geo. B. Donavin, No. 29; J. N. Maas, No. 39; E. W. Tulloss, No. 45; Christ Neeb, No. 58; Frank Sensheimer, No. 17.

Credentials—Jacob Woehrle, No. 4; Jacob Klein, No. 21; J. A. Williams, No. 234; W. P. Marquardt, Jr., No. 32; Geo. W. Carey, No. 151.

Mileage and Per Diem—W. F. Bruce, No. 195; Frank Sheetz, No. 95; W. M. Roach, No. 67; Art Daugherty, No. 1; E. Pauck, No. 219.

Distribution of Reports—M. Bartlett, No. 149, Toledo; J. M. Lloyd, No. 252; Enos Conard, No. 33; W. B. Albright, No. 286; Chas. Scholey, No. 126.

Revision of Laws—William Beatty, No. 20, Toledo; Franklin Ellis, No. 110; J. B. Worley, No. 196.

Grand Chancellor Williams submitted his annual report, a brief summary of which follows:

"The year has been one of great prosperity, both in increase in old lodges and in the organization of new ones. While I have tried to put new lodges in where there was a good reason to believe a good healthy lodge could be planted, the old lodges have not been neglected, as the report will show. I am glad to be able to report to you that Ohio is now entitled to the fourth Supreme Representative.

"The membership as shown by reports under seal, in response to a circular sent out under date of April 13, 1892, was 42,747.

"Add to this an estimated gain in the old, lodges and the membership of lodges not included in the above, and we have a grand total of 43,917. Dispensations have been granted for eighty-six (86) new lodges up to date, May 12), averaging over 39 members to the lodge, and while this gain has been great, the old lodges have been growing nicely and make an average gain of over seven (7) members to each old lodge.

"The gain for the year just ending, based upon reports received, is seven thousand one hundred and three, (7,103), and I am satisfied that by the time of the session of the Grand Lodge that the membership will be fully 44,000."

"Fifteen halls were dedicated during the year, including Air Line Junction, Byran, Pioneer, McComb and Edgerton.

"Lodges at Moorefield and Freeport, Harrison county, were consolidated, and the charters at Bakersville and Anna were taken up.

"By-laws for 64 lodges were examined and approved.

"Halls at Cygnet and Clarington were destroyed by fire.

"No official decisions were made.

"The Grand Chancellor reported his expense account for clerk hire, etc., to be less than $2,000.

"Gen. J. W. Greene was promoted to the chairmanship of the finance committee, vice E. Hitchens, elected Grand Master of Exchequer.

"In closing, Col. Williams pays compliment to his associates on the grand lodge roster, as well as those in the subordinate ranks who aided him.

K. of R. and S.

Col. S. A. Court, G. K. of R. and S., in his annual report gives many details in the statistical line. The net membership for the calendar year foots up 39,228, but this is largely added to in the grand chancellor's statements.

Receipts for the year amounted to $[illegible], and the disbursements $270,817.75, leaving an excess of receipts over expenditures of $81,727.96. Nearly $73,000 were paid out for relief on members, their widows and orphans.

By a supplement report Col. Court shows the amount of cash on hand in the grand lodge fund to be May 1, 1892, $26,374.56.

The grand secretary gives the following figures as to the record for the jurisdiction since the organization of the grand body in 1869, gains being shown for all years except 1876:

	Membership.	Gain.		Membership.	Gain.
1869	1702	1702	1881	7245	617
1870	2285	583	1882	9017	1772
1871	2995	710	1883	11304	2287
1872	3505	510	1884	12566	1252
1873	4382	877	1885	13282	716
1874	4859	477	1886	15899	2616
1875	5788	929	1887	19450	3552
1876	5549	239	1888	22836	3386
1877	5665	116	1889	28426	5590
1878	5984	319	1890	34020	5594
1879	6079	95	1891	39228	5208
1880	6628	549

An average gain in the 23 years of over 1,700 members per year.

To-night a reception will be tendered to the representatives by Columbus division, Uniform rank, while the past grand chancellors will hold their annual banquet at the Neil house.

Grand Chancellor Williams is receiving many well-deserved compliments for his good work the past year. For five years there has been an effort on the part of grand chancellors to eclipse each other in gain, and it was thought Col. Williams would have hard sledding. He closes his year, however, with the best gain since "the boom" commenced, and is therefore entitled to the fullest measure of praise.

NEW TRIAL WANTED.

Boston, May 24.—Efforts will be made to obtain a new trial for James A. Trefethen, who was convicted of the murder of Lena Davis on the ground of alleged new evidence showing that she drowned herself.

TIMOTHY TO MARRY.

London, May 24.—The announcement is made that Mr. Timothy Harrington, Parnellite M. P., representing the harbor division of Dublin, in the house of commons, is to marry Miss O'Neill, daughter of the late Dr. O'Neill, of Dublin.

OWASSO GOSSIP.

A Live Little City Which is Pushing to the Front.

Owasso, O., May 24.—(Special.)—Owasso is still in it. At a special meeting of taxpayers, called for the purpose of getting an expression o fthe people in regard to giving a bonus of $10,000 to a paper mill, which wishes to locate here, everybody was in favor of giving it and the vote was unanimous. The mill will employ 75 men run night and day and consume 20 tons of straw per day, which can't help but benefit the town and vicinity.

If some good samaratin with lots of money wishing to make a good investment would drop off at Owasso and look over the situation for a new opera house he would find chance for good investment.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Hume are spending a few days at Old Point Comfort with relatives.

Mr. Ote Merell spent Sunday in Detroit.

Mrs. F. J. McDannel is spending a few days with her mother in Bryan, O.

Mr. J. F. Bratting, J. S. McGuire, and E. S. Curtis, train despatchers of the T. &A. A. office at this place, expect to attend the train dispatchers' convention held at New Orleans June 12.

The new motor line between Owasso and Corunne continues to do a rushing business every car is crowded to its utmost capacity.

Arrangements are being made for the production of Queen Ester at Saulsbury's hall, June 9 and 10, under the management of Prof Zimmerman. Mr. Zimmerman is a musician from the word go, and will undoubtedly give satisfaction.

Mr. Fay, yard master at the T. & A. A., will move his family from Toledo this week.

Miss Jennie Wyle spent Sunday in Toledo.

NO MONEY FOR THE MILITIA.

Columbus, May 24.—The Sterret law, passed last winter, will, in all probability, not be carried out in its relation to the increase of companies of the O. N. G. The law is satisfactory, but there has been no appropriation for equipping new companies. Adjutant General Pocock has applications from a number of towns ready to furnish the quota for new companies, but he will muster none into service.

THE CRANK IS ON DECK

A Letter Concerning the Van Loon Case.

A Man in Alabama Claims He Committed the Crime and Defies the Police.

Columbus, O. May 24.—Sheriff Ross has received a very mysterious and sensational letter bearing the postmark of Birmingham, Ala., in which the writer declares himself to be the perpetrator of the Columbus Grove murder and robbery. The letter is written in a plain business hand and is intended to clear Van Loon of the charge for which he is awaiting execution. The letter is a sfollows:

Red Mountain, Still Co.,
Birmingham, Ala., May 20, A. D. 1892.
Governor McKinley and Sheriff of Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen: Don't hang Frank Van Loon. He is not guilty. I am the guilty man and no one is sharp enough to catch me and the gang. The sheriff will commit cold-blooded murder if he hangs Frank Van Loon, for I tell you he is perfectly innocent. I and my men committed the crime which this man is accused of and sentenced to death for, but all hell can't catch us. I am at present on Red mountain, near Birmingham, robbing and killing as usual and doing other desperate acts. I do this to save a man who is not guilty of the accused crime.

Resp.,
LEGION OF HELL.
Birmingham, Ala.

The address on the envelope was: "To the Sheriff and Chief of Police, Columbus, Ohio." In the upper left hand corner was written the word "important," while in the corner below was written "in haste." Both of these were encircled in heavy lines of ink.

DIED AT TWENTY-ONE.

William H. Vanderbilt Passes Away.

The Only One of the Grand Children Who Was Remembered in the Famous Will.

New York, May 24.—William H. Vanderbilt, aged 21, son of Cornelius Vanderbilt, died last night at 10:15 o'clock. His father, mother, brother and sister were present when he passed away. He had been weak all of the earlier part of yesterday and was gradually recovering from the effects of three hemorrhages on Sunday until 8:35 last night he had another hemorrhage of the stomach.

Dr. McLane was with him when he died. He apparently rallied from the attack under Dr. McLane's treatment, and then went to sleep. His sleep was a perpetual one, for he never awoke.

He was taken ill on May 4 at New Haven, Conn., at that time very seriously. As there was no typhus fever in New Haven at that time it is supposed he contracted the disease while on a trip through the western states about the easter holidays.

Chauncey M. Depew said that at the time of the trip Mr. Vanderbilt was not in good health and susceptible to disease.

The deceased inherited by the will of his grandfather, William H. Vanderbilt, $1,000,000, the income to be converted to his use when he attained his majority, the principal to be placed to his credit when he became 30 years of age. He was the only one of the grandchildren of William H. Vanderbilt mentioned in his will. The deceased was one of the most popular men in the junior class at Yale.

WORKMEN TAKE WARNING

Places Marked Which You Should Shun.

Too Many Laborers in Certain Localities Has Made Their Work Unsalable.

Philadelphia, May 24.—The coming issue of the official journal of the Knights of Labor will contain another large batch of warnings to workingmen to keep away from various places.

One states that Little Rock and other places in Arkansas should be shunned by every one seeking work, as these places are crowded with idle men, many of them on the verge of starvation.

The cotton-oil mills are closing down for the summer, leaving hundreds of men out of employment.

Mine laborers are requested to stay away from the Courdelaine mines of Idaho, and from the mines at Pineville, Ky., at both of which places there is a lock-out, as well as from the mines at Huntington, Ark., which place is crowded with idle men. Mechanics and laborers are warned to stay away from Carthage and Torkio, Mo.; Benton Harbor, Mich., and Charleston, Ill.

The Missouri points named, it is claimed, are flooded with men from Kansas and southern Arkansas, and much suffering caused by lack of work is unavoidable.

DOINGS IN FINDLAY.

The Catholic School War Will Nit Down.

Findlay, O., May 24.—(Special)—Auditors Reed, of Putnam; Metcalf, of Hancock, and the auditor of Paulding county met in this city to-day to assess the Tangent line.

Miss Ella Johnson, one of the unfortunate victims of the celebrated Hotel Marvin gas explosion, died of injuries received at her home in Leipsic yesterday afternoon.

The ministers and all classes of people are now talking of the unjust and uncalled-for fight of five members of the city school board refusing to vote for the re-election of several worthy Catholic teachers in the city schools.

Deputy Sheriff Murford went to Columbus yesterday having in charge J. F. Hummell and R. F. Floyd, who will serve one year each in the penitentiary.

Wm. Shenkle, Mabel and Burton Champion, proprietors of the Hotel Champion, are under arrest for violating the Sunday closing ordinance.

AMUSEMENTS ON SUNDAY

Important Day in the Methodist Conference.

Two Reports Filed With the Body.

The Epworth League Under Consideration—The Proceedings Given in Detail.

Omaha, Neb., May 24.—Bishop Ninde presided over to-day's session of the Methodist conference. The report of the committee on the state of the church touching dancing and other worldly amusements was filed with the secretary. The committee does not agree.

The minorit ysigned by 11 members recommended that the portion of paragraph 24 after the words "intoxicating liquors" and including all the other so-called worldly amusements, and that a new paragraph be inserted in the discipline, the gist of which is as follows:

"No true Christian can doubt that any amusement which diminishes the spirit of prayer interest in spiritual things, or disqualifies for earnest efforts to lead men to the consecration of their hearts and lives to God is wrong.

Nor can any Christian engage in any diversion which has a pernicious effect upon the young, or which cannot safely be imitated by them.

"Amusements, also, which lead the worldly-minded to suppose those who indulge in them are not devoted Christians should be avoided. He who would please his neighbor for his God to edification will indulge in nothing whose general effect is bad, even though upon himself it may be indifferent or as he supposes good.

"We effectionately urge our members not to blindly follow their own inclinations or to imitate the multitude who live unto themselves, and enjoin upon our pastors the duty of expostulating with those who are obviously in danger of substituting earthly joys for those of true religion."

It will be seen that the minority simply desire sto eliminate the present penalty which provides expulsion for those who disobey the present discipline relating to dancing, theater-going, horse racing, etc., and allow church members to decide for themselves whether they desire to so amuse themselves, there being no penalty to hang over their heads.

The report of the committee on Epworth league which was laid aside Saturday, was again taken up. Dr. Caswell moved to consolidate the general secretaryship and the auditorship of the Herald.

It was defeated. The next fight was a motion to strike out the clause permitting other societies to continue in existence on equal terms with the league. During the argument Dr. Berry and Mr. Murray, of Pennsylvania, had a heated colloquy.

Murray charged that a collusion existed between certain committeemen by which a minority report was kept out of the conference.

Dr. Maxwell, of Nebraska, thought the league should be given exclusive right in the church. The previous question being demanded, an aye and nay vote was asked by L. M. Shaw, of Des Moines. It was defeated.

Mr. Murray demanded a vote by orders but it was not ordered. The vote then being taken Dr. Munroe's amendment eliminating the section which provides for recognition of other societies, it was sustained by a vote of 275 to 164, and the Epworth league is not the only official young people's society in the church. The section relating to the other societies was adopted as a foot note.

SEVENTY-THREE TO-DAY.

Queen Victoria is Rapidly Growing Old.

Flags Flying and Houses Decorated In Honor of the Lady Who Rules the Land.

New York, May 24.—A dispatch from London says: Flags are flying from church steeples, municipal and government buildings, and hundreds of thousands of business structures and private residences in Great Britain to-day, and the bells in every Episcopal church from one end of the land to the other are ringing merrily.

All of this is in celebration of the fact that to-day her majesty, Victoria, queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and empress of India, reaches the 73d year of her existence upon this earth. A month hence the fifty-seventy year of her reign will commence.

The venerable sovereign, who is quietly spending the day at Balmoral, surrounded by her children and grandchildren, has been the recipient of numerous loyal addresses, and has received telegrams of congratulation from the czar of Russia, the emperor of Germany, the president of the French republic, and from nearly all of the United States ambassadors abroad.

Since her return from her visit to France her majesty has been in excellent health. She has a fine constitution and lives under the healthiest conditions. Hard work and a great deal of outdoor exercise seems to suit her perfectly, and she takes long drives every day in an open carriage. This afternoon, in accordance with her usual custom for several years past, she will visit the tomb of the prince consort, and to-night there will be a family dinner at the castle.

EGAN DISCOVERED.

Chicago, May 24.—Missing Shipping Master Egan was located this afternoon at Rochester, N. Y. He had disappeared of his own accord.

JOHN R. BUCHTEL DEAD.

Akron, O., May 24.—John R. Buchtel died yesterday of paralysis, after many years of suffering.

The steamer Lawrence, which went on Racine reef, did not escape without damage, as has been reported. She was placed in dry dock in Milwaukee, when it was found that 40 feet of her keel had been torn away and her shoe broken. Having completed her repairs, she left Milwaukee yesterday on her voyage to the foot of the lake.

ASKED TO STEP DOWN

Mr. Harrison Will Be Requested

To Quietly Get Off the Political Earth.

Chairman Clarkson Has Gone to Washington to Point Out Benjamin's Mistake to Him.

New York, May 24.—The Herald this morning says that Chairman Clarkson went to Washington armed with the emphatic demand of the most influential republicans in the eastern, middle and western states which are not solidly democratic, that President Harrison shall stand aside and that Mr. Blaine shall be the candidate.

In the absence of Mr. Blaine the republican chairman will go direct to President Harrison and make an appeal to him that he shall take such action as will prevent the pressing of his name at Minneapolis.

AFTER BENNY'S HAIR.

Chauncey I. Filley on the Present Situation.

Washington, May 24.—Mr. Chauncey I. Filley, member of the republican national committee from Missouri, is in the city. In an interview upon the presidential nomination he said:

"I have voted for Blaine in three national conventions and aided his nomination in 1884, and each time represented the sentiment of my state. Now with New York, Wisconsin, the silver states, the Pacific and northwestern states doubtful, it behooves the republicans to move with extreme caution.

"The administration has been admittedly clean and able in its domestic and foreign policy, legislation and work and is entitled to the respect of the party, therefore it enjoys universal respect. I have been in several states and have felt of the disinterested pulse, not like that of Missouri state convention, which a leading postmaster said contained 267 postmasters., not counting the United States marshals, district attorneys and deputies, but the class who for the best interests of the country desire to see republican rule maintained—men who are intersted in manufactures, of the finance trade, agriculture; and who would not accept an office.

"They speak out plainly that no mistake must be made at Minneapolis. This is not in opposition to Harrison or any one else, but in the interest of the country and party.

It strikes home to republicans when such a state as Wisconsin is put in the democratic column. There is a letter here in Washington, in the hands of a prominent republican, written for the eye of the president—that is to be shown to him—from the best informed republican source in Wisconsin, saying that Harrison could not carry that state.

"Indiana republicans (non-office holders) and men who would not hold a public office, say similar things of Indiana.

"This, mind you, is not my assertion; it is theirs. The same is said of Colorado and other republican and pivotal states. This is having a marked effect. I believe that whoever the republicans nominate thy can and will elect; but republicans of republican states who do the work and upon whom the responsibility rests have become restive, doubtful and hesitators. They above all others want success.

"The admonitions of Senators Gallinger, Washburn, Teller Wolcott, Jones and ex-Senators Platt and Miller, of New York, are having a decided effect. The attitude of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, the silver states, the Pacific states, and the northwest is also having a decided effect.

"The fact that the bulk of instructions are from the south is also having its effect. This, however, is not charged up to the president, but to the indiscreet zeal of the federal officeholders and employes. What the party demands is success, and that the sentiment of the party must be consulted and deferred to.

"I know of no conference agreement here or elsewhere upon any candidate. I should oppose any such thing now. But I do favor a conference of delegates from the republican states at Minneapolis and a free discussion over the situation and then the support of the nominee whether it shall be Harrison, Blaine, McKinley, Alger, Reed, or any other republican.

"I have no candidate outside of that line and that policy and I know that I reflect in this the sentiments of other delegates, both instructed and uninstructed. I have recently been in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and New York and speak by the card, not mere speculation."

MANSFIELD WILL ISSUE BONDS.

Mansfield, O., May 24.—Nearly 3,000 votes were cast in this city on the proposition to bond the city for $100,000 to secure funds to procure the change of the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railway division terminals from Crestline to this city. There were but fifty-five votes against the measure.

HER DEAD BODY FOUND.

Sandusky, May 24.—Mrs. C. J. Beier, aged 65 years, said to have been of unsound mind, left her home, and, failing to return, a search was made for her, and her body was found in the bay, she having fallen or jumped from one of the docks here

BLOCKED BY THE SENATE

No Tariff Legislation Can Go Through.

The American House of Lords Will Not Look Into the Interests of the Poor Man.

Washington, May 24.—The prospects for further tariff legislation by this congress is not the most propitious, judged by a discussion on the subject that took place at a meeting of the senate committee on finance to-day.

The probabilities of taking up at an early day one or more of the tariff bills passed by the house were talked over informally, but no definite information was given as to the probable policy of the committee—or rather the republican majority—in the matter.

The impression left by the short discussion was that if the committee does report the free wool bill, or some other tariff measure, it will not do so for several weeks. The resolutions introduced yesterday by Senator Vest, directing the discharge of the finance committee from further consideration of the free wool bill, was not presented, as generally supposed, to bring the bill before the senate for action, but merely to allow Mr. Vest and other democratic senators an opportunity of making speeches on the tariff, so that the democratic senators do not seem very hopeful of securing any tariff legislation without the aid of the finance committee, which is of course opposed to the enactment of measures placing articles on the free list.

THIS IS PLAIN.

It Simply Explains the Position of Drs. Copeland and Bell.

Whom the Shoe Fits Let Him Put It On—Now Let the Public Judge By Results of the Merit of Our Work.

Drs. Copeland and Bell say what they have to say to the public in a direct and straightforward manner. They do not ask the protection of the newspapers, or seek to secure silence by threats of libel. They are themselves responsible for their printed statements, and what they say in print they are prepared to prove. Let there be no mistake about this. Their names, their work and their record are before the public, and when assailed they have a right to protect themselves by all adequate and legitimate means. They have this to say to the newspapers in which they advertise, and the public generally: When attacks or criticisms are to be made, print them. All they ask is an opportunity to answer what is said just as frankly and just as truthfully as they are able. They don't seek to suppress attacks or criticisms of any kind. The only thing they demand is that such attacks shall be signed by responsible parties, and shall contain names, facts and places; no indefinite allusions or vague insinuations. This is fair; it is also business. "Whom the shoe fits, let him put it on."

INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE.

It is Submitted by Mr. Clouse, of Cygnet in Behalf of Drs. Copeland and Bell.

No statement from any of the patients of Drs. Copeland and Bell is more remarkable or more forcible than the following, contributed by Mr. F. D. Clouse, of Cygnet, Ohio:

"Any one who suffer from consumption, or what is generally called consumption, should read this statement, as it indicates what can be done for them by thoroughly skilled specialists who have only the good of the patient at heart.

"I have been affected," said Mr. Clouse, "for six or seven years. I was under the treatment of physicians almost constantly, but the doctors were all at sea in regard to my ailment. Some said I had consumption; some said it was bleeding from the stomach. Dr. T. A. Slocum, of New York City, said that I had consumption and treated me for it. I coughed and raised a great deal. I had pains through the chest and back; I had chills and night sweats. The night sweats were so profuse that frequently I had to have the bed-clothing changed. I lost flesh and strength and began to think that I was going to die, especially since my mother and sister had died with consumption.

"The pains through my chest and back were very severe, and when I coughed it nearly tore me to pieces. My throat was raw and sore because of the continual dropping from the head into my throat, and the coughing. I had dull pains in the back of my head and over my eyes. My appetite was irregular and if I ate any quantity I had great distress afterwards. My sleep was fitful and unrefreshing. Altogether I was completely run down, and was so weak I was obliged to give up my work.

What Has Been Done For Him.

"Since placing myself under the treatment of Drs. Copeland and Bell my cough has disappeared to such an extent that I scarcely notice it. My sore throat has gone, and the dropping from the head which used to irritate it has ceased altogether. I have no headaches, no pains through my chest or back. My appetite is improved and I relish my food, and have no feeling of distress. I sleep well and awake feeling thoroughly refreshed. During the time of treatment I have gained considerable flesh and strength, and feel better than I have at any time in the past ten years. My recovery has been remarkable. I owe all this to Drs. Copeland and Bell, and desire publicly to express my gratitude to them, and to testify to their splendid ability as physicians."

Columbus Takes Another Ball Game

Interesting Sporting Gossip Gathered Here and There for Readers of the Bee.

Toledo could not hit the ball safely yesterday, and lost. Columbus has no better ball team than Toledo, but is playing in the greatest kind of luck. Clausen was floating the ball over the plate as big as a football, with not a bend in it, but every time Toledo connected with it the ball went straight into somebody's hands for an out. Columbus was lucky in bunching the hits in two innings, and earning three of the runs scored, Breckenridge's home run in the second, and Walsh and O'Rourke's runs in the fifth.

Toledo's batting order needs shaking up and needs it badly. The club is not getting the benefit of the strength it has, and the boys are becoming discouraged. There are good men on the team, and men who will be found in much faster company next year, but the play of the whole team shows that something is lacking.

It behooves the management to correct the evil or find the attendance very slim.

Umpire Serad makes his greatest mistake in not watching more closely the play on the bases. It is the fault of all pitchers who try to umpire. They watch the plate and let the bags watch themselves. O'Rourke knocked Nicholson down yesterday and spoiled a double play, but Billy did not see, he was so intent on watching the play at the plate. He called Walsh "safe" and he was right because Walsh scored his run, but O'Rourke was left safe at second when he should have been declared out. Brighten up your lamp a little, Billy, and you will be all right.

Notes of the Game.

Put Armour down in the batting list and he will hit the ball safely.

Ely or Gettinger should lead the batting list.

The Toledo team hit the ball hard yesterday but right toward open hands.

The Empires defeated a picked nine Sunday by a score of 28 to 13. P. McNamee, Manager; F. Wilson, Captain.

Only two Toledo boys struck out yesterday and yet Toledo only got one hit. Everybody is hitting the ball but nobody seems to be able to hit it safely. Luck is bound to turn.

The Dalleys defeated the Tanner Juniors by a score of 20 to 10 Sunday. Batteries—For the Dalleys, Graves and Moore; for the Tanners, Hards and Gaily. Tom Graves, Manager; Pete Fluge, Captain.

FR. QUIGLEY ONCE MORE

The Truant Officer Makes a Report

To the Effect That the Law Is Violated.

Interesting Meeting of the Board of Education — The Proceedings in Detail.

The board of education met in regular session last evening and the secretary read the following communication from Truant Officer Disher:

H. W. Compton, Clerk of the Board of Education.

Sir: With reference to the collection of the April truant law reports from the different schools, I have as yet been unable to obtain any reports from the school of which Rev. P. Quigley is the principal, although the different courts to which he has appealed, including the supreme court of Ohio, have decided that he shall make these reports, and although he has been furnished with blanks for this purpose, and notwithstanding the fact that I have called at his residence to obtain this report, I have still been unable to secure it.

"I would be glad to know if you have any instructions for me relating to this matter.

I need these reports to determine whether the children whom I find on the streets, and who say they are in school, are actually registered as pupils, and I also need them to determine whether they have complied with the law by attending schools the requisite number of days. JOHN E. DISHER.

The communication was referred to Prosecuting Attorney Barber.

The building committee reported a schedule of bills and estimates approved, amounting to $3,751.83.

Included in this schedule was the first estimate of $939 to I. D. Smead & Co.

Mr. Kohn inquired about this estimate. He didn't understand why this contract should require estimates. He was informed that the closets constituted the second estimates and were to be paid for when set.

He desired to be passed on the roll call of the schedule.

The chairman of the building committee reported that the board owned enough property at Air Line Junction on which to build an eight-room building. He moved that the old one-room building now on the site be moved and a four-room brick building be constructed on an eight-room plan, which was approved.

Mr. Schlingman moved an amendment that the building committee be instructed to look over the situation with a view of erecting a school building on Walbridge avenue next fall, which carried.

The following bids were opened for the sodding of the grounds of the East Toledo school:

Scherlitz & Singer.....	$301 44
Patrick Murphy.....	260 00
Thos. Bell.....	300 00
W. T. Ryan.....	525 00
Henry Karuch.....	345 00

Patrick Murphy, being the lowest bidder, was awarded the contract.

This was the date set for the awarding of the contract for school furniture for the new buildings, and there were a dozen agents present representing various school furniture companies. There was also present a committee from the Central Labor union in the interest of a boycott on various companies in the school furniture trust, known as the United States Furniture company.

A communication was read from the Iron Moulders' union of Grand Rapids, Mich., to the Central Labor union of Toledo stating that the Grand Rapids Furniture company was a member of the combine, also that it employs non-union labor and had been boycotted by the labor organizations over the country. It requested that the Central Labor union take steps to enlighten the school with regard to the state of affairs.

Secretary Smith of the Central Labor union was one of this committee and, in a few words, laid the matter before the board and requested that the members give it their careful consideration. He stated that the Central Labor union had been endeavoring to secure the names of all the firms in the trust, but up to the present time had been unable to do so. He asked that the board postpone awarding the contract until the next meeting, when explicite information on the subject would be submitted. The request was granted.

The committee appointed to consider and investigate the bids for the purchase of a piano reported on five, from which the board could select one. The choice resulted in the selection of the Stieff piano, and the purchase of this instrument at $250 was authorized.

The question of increased pay for the janitor was again brought up and again referred to the committee on buildings and finance to report at its "earliest convenience." Mr. Eversman objected to this, but he was voted down.

The furniture men then had their inning.

THE NATIONAL MILLERS.

They Are in Session in Chicago.

Much Important Work to Come Before Them at the Sixteenth Annual Meeting.

Chicago, May 24.—The sixteenth annual convention of the National Association of Millers of the United States opened at the Gand Pacific this morning, and has attracted a large number of representative millers to the city.

The convention will be in session for three days, and will tackle a large number of important subjects. Among them are the anti-option bill, the question of extending the scope of the Millers' Tracing bureau, a proposition to establish a bureau of information relative to the standing and character of flour dealers, and the consideration of several disputes regarding patents.

Senator W. D. Washburne will deliver an address inaugurating the discussion upon the anti-option bill.

JOHN BASTABLE

Will Return to His Old Love, the C., H. & D.

About a year ago John Bastable, the popular railroad man, left his position as district passenger agent of the C., H. & D. at Toledo and went to Detroit as passenger agent of the Queen & Crescent Route. His departure was generally regretted, and it is with pleasure that his friends learn that he will return to Toledo and to his former position on the C., H. & D. He succeeds F. B. Sanford, and the appointment takes effect to-day.

GOLD HEADED UMBRELLA

Presented to Reynold Voit by the Beer Brewers and Drivers.

Before leaving for New York last night where he goes to attend the annual meeting of the American Flint Glass workers, Mr. Reynold Voit was presented with a handsome gold headed umbrella by the Brewers' union and the Beer Drivers' union, of this city.

The present was the joint gift of the two unions in token of services rendered during the trouble between the employers and employes of the city breweries.

Mr. Voit, is one of the joint committee of employers and employes in the flint glass business, which is to meet at the Astor house, New York, this week, to fix wages for the ensuing year.

TOLEDO COMMANDERY,

Knights Templar, Will Attend Trinity Church Thursday Evening.

Thursday evening the festival of Ascension will be celebrated at Trinity church. Rev. Charles Scadding has invited Toledo commandery, Knights Templar, to attend, and the invitation has been accepted.

The knights will assemble at their asylum at 7:45 o'clock in full uniform, white gloves, without swords. The presence of every sir knight is requested. The ladies are especially invited to be present during the services. There will be a choral service.

AMERICAN FISHERIES SOCIETY.

The club now has about sixty members and is planning for good times and good work this summer.

The Toledo Canoe club held a meeting last night at their rooms on Water street, and decided to go to Grassy Point on Decoration day. They will have a ball game and races, prizes for different races having been donated.

The delegation from the Political Equality club to the Salem convention will leave over the W. & L. E. road to-morrow at 7:45 a. m. The delegates are: Mrs. Judge Bentley, Mrs. C. V. Murphy, Mrs. E. A. Ward, Mrs. A. C. Clough, Miss Louise Obermiller.

COLLECTOR WALDORF

Posts Notices Regarding the Payment of Special Taxes.

Collector of Internal Revenue Waldorf has posted notices in substance as follows:

Under the revised statutes every person engaged in any business, avocation, or employment which renders him liable to a special tax, is reuired to procure, and place and keep conspicuously in his establishment or place of business a stamp denoting the payment of said special tax for the special tax year beginning July 1, 1892, before commencing or continuing business after June 30, 1892. A return, as prescribed on Form 11, is also required by law of every person liable to special tax as above. This tax must be paid before July 1.

THEY WERE PUZZLED

And Want to See if They Can Clear Up the Mystery.

A number of gentlemen, spiritualists, investigators and puzzled unbelievers, who witnessed Ellington & Cook's performance at Wheeler's Sunday evening, have subscribed a guarantee fund to bring them back and the tests will be made at Wheeler's Friday evening.

The mediums offered to have the test in a private house or Memorial hall, but as so many have expressed a desire to witness their wonderful performance, the gentlemen interested in bringing them back have decided to rent Wheeler's and charge a small admission fee. The mediums are positively the most mystifying that have ever appeared in this city. Their feats are the talk of the street.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY.

It Looks as If McElroy, of Toledo, Was Murdered.

It was stated in the Bee yesterday that Edward McElroy, of this city, had been found drowned in a Wisconsin lake. It seems that at the inquest facts were developed that would denote foul play. The following note was found on his person, written in a scrawling hand:

"The bearer has been disposed of here by an enemy and has got justice in doing so. Do not trouble yourself if found out any more. E. G. Gibbens, H. Y. T."

The officers at Oconomowoc, where the body was found, learned that there was a woman in the case. She had been seen with him before his disappearance and it was ascertained that her name was Mary Wendelstein, alias Mag Bloomenstein. She was found but denied all knowledge of the affair.

McElroy left Toledo about three weeks ago. He had been employed on the Consolidated street railway and lived at 2154 Ashland avenue. Before coming to Toledo he lived at New London, O.

IN LABOR CIRCLES.

A Workingmen's Hall Proposed for Toledo.

The salesmen meet at Elk's hall to-night.

Tallymen's union meets at Johnson's hall to-night.

The Barbers' union, No. 5, meets at Carpenters' hall to-night.

The Bricklayers' union holds a meeting at Mulcahy's hall to-night.

Painters' and Decorators' union meet at Clarke's hall this evening.

The Public Record, the labor organ of Toledo, has a plan by which permanent headquarters can be secured for all the labor organizations of Toledo. Several of the local labor leaders, to whom the plan has been unfolded, regard it favorably. Dayton, Cleveland and Cincinnati and many other cities have a "home" of this kind, and there is no reason why Toledo should not have one.

The conference between the flint and glass workers and the manufacturers, for the purpose of settling the scale of wages regarding the cutting branch of the trade, and other difficulties, is meeting at the Astor house, New York, to-day. The employers and employes are each represented by five delegates, and Mr. Reynold Voit, of Toledo, is one of the five men selected to represent the glassworkers of the United States. He left for New York last night.

VISITORS APPOINTED.

The Committee That Will Inspect the Charitable Institutes of the County.

The common pleas court this morning appointed a board of county visitors for the inspection of all charitable and correctional institutions supported by Lucas county.

This is the order of the appointments: Mrs. Ellen S. Fray and L. G. Richardson, one year; Mrs. Martha S. Kline and Michael J. Cooney, two years; Mrs. Sarah G. Bissell and Patrick S. Slevin, three years.

REPLEVINED THE SAND.

Another Step in the Flint Glass Sand and Stone Litigation in Common Pleas Court.

The Bee a short time ago stated that H. E. Palmer, on an execution of a judgment rendered in common pleas court, levied on six car loads of sand, on the Lake Shore tracks, owned by the Flint Glass Sand and Stone company.

Yesterday the company, through the coroner, replevined the property from Sheriff Stuart.

ATTACHED A BOAT.

Sheriff Stewart Has Levied on a Sandsucker.

Sheriff Stewart last evening took possession of the sandsucker "Walter D.," owned by Degnan & Co.

The levy was made on execution of a judgment rendered in the common pleas court in the case of Henry Ryan against Isaac Gillispie for $121.04, and costs amounting to $18.

Isaac Gillispie, the defendant, it, it is claimed, an owner in the boat.

A BIG TIME ANTICIPATED.

Bicycle Boys and Girls Will Enjoy a Run Up in Michigan.

Captain Himes, of the Toledo Cycling club, issues the following schedule of the club's tour to Ann Arbor and Detroit May 29 and 30:

Leave Club house Saturday, May 28, at 6:30 p. m. for Union depot to take train for Adrian at 7:50 p. m. Stay Saturday night in Adrian; Sunday, May 29, leave Adrian and ride to Ann Arbor, stopping at Saline for dinner. Stay Sunday night in Ann Arbor; Monday, May 30, Decoration day, ride to Detroit, coming home from Detroit by train Monday night. The roads are the finest in Michigan, the pace will be slow and we will ride only 36 miles each day. Ladies are especially invited. This is not a scorch but a run for fun; all wheelmen are invited, whether club members or not. Send in your name to captain, so hotel and transportation arrangements can be made. For further information address M. R. Himes, captain T. C. C. Contest for gold mileage medal starts June 1.

The boys will have a big time and the girls, too, for that matter.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH FAIR.

Opening of the Great Event at Memorial Hall To-day.

This is the opening day of the fair to be given by the ladies of the Episcopal churches of the city, all the churches being represented except Trinity.

At the right of the main entrance is the booth containing a No. 9 Singer sewing machine, presented by Mr. A. Austin, as are also the booth and several fine pieces of fancy work, specimens of work done on the machine.

At the booth of the Junior auxiliary of Grace church can be procured fancy work, confectionery, books, and cut flowers.

The Cheerful Workers sell all kinds of fancy work, embroidery and needlework at their booth, which is large and handsomely decorated.

The ladies at St. Mark's booth will serve lemonade and chocolate, while at St. Paul's booth ice cream and cake will be dispensed.

The ladies of St. John's church have in charge the Japanese booth.

The fair will close Friday evening, when everything not sold will be auctioned off.

THE SAD DEATH

Of the Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. O. St. John.

The angel of death has entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. O. St. John, and has laid his icy hand on the pet of the household, little Sadie, the only daughter.

The fatal illness began with a nervous disorder, which the attending physician pronounced the result of over study. The best medical skill and the watchful, constant care of friends failed to arrest the disease, which finally terminated in inflammatory rheumatism. Her suffering was intense, and her patient endurance wonderful. Nothing pained her so much as to see her parents grieve, and in the few moments of respite she would sometimes have, she would sing, to show them how happy she was. This morning at 4 o'clock she fell asleep in the arms of her Saviour, and the little pain-racked body is at rest.

Little Sadie was 10 years and 8 months old, a bright, happy child who endeared herself to all, and the great sorrow that has darkened the home where she was the light and joy will sadden the hearts of many who knew and loved her.

The funeral will occur at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the residence, 629 West Bartlett street.

CITY TAXES.

The Levy Arranged by the Ways and Means Committee.

The city tax commission met in the auditor's office last evening. The reappointment of Mr. L. S. Baumgardner to the board was presented and he was sworn in for another term by Mayor Emmick. In the reorganization Mr. Leander Burdick was re-elected presiding officer of the commission.

The council committee on ways and means then met to fix the tax levy for the coming year and the tax commission also took part in the deliberations, as the levy is subject to their approval.

It was found that the levy must be made up to the limit of 14 mills and it was even found difficult to arrange this so as not to embarass any of the funds. The levy is based on an appraisement of $42,000,000 and the apportionment in mills finally decided upon is as follows:

	Mills.
General interest	6.00
Sinking fund	1.00
General purposes	2.00

A PERFECT GEM

Is the Elegant New Shoe Store of Hill Brothers, on Superior Street.

Modern ideas are prevailing in this city in the matter of store furnishings as well as in other lines, and there has been nothing opened in Toledo that excels the handsome shoe parlors of Hill Brothers, Superior street, next to Allen & Parkhurst's. Here the consummation of their plans show a master mind in every detail, and from attractive tile entrance to elegantly mirrored interior, all is suggestive of ideas—and good ideas, too.

The fixtures were made to order, and are of the richest and handsomest cabinet finish, by Draper & Nugent, and are of white oak, quartered and finished in brown antique, everything being of the finest.

Another feature that strikes one prominently is the fact that every pair of shoes is put up in exactly the same size, shape and color of box (thereby giving uniformity), the shelving made to exactly hold a certain number of boxes and no more, so that there are no "squirrel holes," as the York state people say when they pile crooked wood, or unsightly setting of boxes on edge to partly fill an aperture. The front or salesroom is used more for a sample room than otherwise, all reserve stock being carried in the stock room in the rear.

The room has been most tastily and artistically decorated, and from the rich moquette carpet to the handsomely decorated Kinnear & Gager steel ceiling, done by Allen & Parkhurst, all is harmony. The settees are marvels of artistic construction, and combine novelty with richness, newness, beauty and utility.

In the rear of the sales parlors is located convenient toilet rooms, a feature that ladies with children will appreciate highly.

The front of the store is handsomely set off and to excellent advantage by a modern bay or show window, the sides and rear of which are of polished mirrors, thus happily aiding to display the goods placed therein to good advantage.

The rear of the salesroom is also mirrored its entire width, a tasty piece of fretwork filling the break between ceiling and top of mirrors.

The firm of Hill Brothers will carry none but Ladies', Misses' and Children's medium and fine goods, and these of the best known makes and grades.

Opening Day.

To-morrow will be opening day, when the young men would like to have the public generally call and inspect this beautiful store and fine new stock.

A CANDY PEDDLER

Gets Himself Into Trouble and Don't Profit by It.

One of the men who have been selling candy on the streets for the past few days, M. H. Reuben by name, was arraigned in police court this morning charged with obstructing the sidewalk. He was given $5 and costs. This forenoon he again made himself a nuisance and was arrested. He was released on $25 bail.

At Lincoln hall last night a merry party of young people whirled through the mazy dance until a late hour. The occasion was a leap year party given by Mrs. Colburn. Miss Higgins and the Misses Sullivan, and was a success in every particular.

Mrs. Lucia Julian Martin left this morning for St. Thomas, Ontario, where she gives a reading this evening before the Alma Ladies' college.

Mrs. H. H. Pierce, of Fourteenth street, who has been suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism, is on the road to recovery.

The Misses Sullivan and Higgins gave a leap-year party at Lincoln hall, last evening. A large number of young people were present and had a jolly time. Among the guests were: The Misses Grambling, Getz, Lillie Keenan, Josie France, Daily, Walsh, Ranger, Goulet, Josie Weick, Francis Weick, Mr. Monagh, and Messrs. Jack McGittingan, Will Lyon, George Wilson, Lou Edwards, Englenart, Ed. Gruber, Ed. Sheets, Charles Wolf, Ed Sawkins, and Mr. Richards, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

This morning at 8 o'clock, at Rev. Fr. Hannin's church, occurred the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Malone to Mr. P. Mulcahey, of Cleveland. The wedding was a very quiet and elegant one. The bride is a charming lady and was prettily attired in a handsome crepe costume. Mr. Mulcahey is assistnat treasurer at Cleveland. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents from abroad and at home. Mr. and Mrs. Mulcahey left for the east this afternoon, and after an extended trip will reside in Cleveland.

Notes.

Gilbert Rossie was drowned off the Truman Moss while being towed into Chicago.

Owing to the presence in the Chicago harbor yesterday of a large fleet of vessels laden with lumber and ties, the Lumber Unloaders' union advanced their rates very materially. The cargo of a lumber vessel usually put out for $70, was charged $120, and for hemlock ties 2 1-2 cents was charged at the Santa Fe wharf. Vessel owners and masters held out against the advanced figures, but the difference was finally paid by the consignees of the cargoes, and business in the harbor was resumed.

A LADY ADVISES LADIES

A Few Secrets from Her Own Experience Which Can Be Profitably Adopted by Others.

I know a charming lady who knows more beautiful and attractive women than any other lady in this city. In conversation recently, she said: "I often feel very sorry when I see so many beautiful women so delicate, and suffering so much, and I have often asked myself what the reason is? I think ladies do not exercise the proper care. They do not eat nourishing food, they are careless of their feet, their necks, their chests. In this way they open the door for diseases and those thousands of troubles which so often afflict womankind, but worse than all they allow their life and strength to run down to a low ebb. How many women we see constantly in this condition. They need help, they need something to depend upon, something that will assist them, some friend in need. I know this, largely, from my own experience for I was once in the same condition myself. I thought the matter over carefully, and decided what I would do. I knew I needed a gentle, constant stimulant, something that would assist my vital forces, keep my blood throbbing and act as a tonic. I decided to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and its effect has been simply wonderful. I do not know what pains, sickness or weakness are and I am satisfied ladies generally could be in the same happy condition by a proper use of the same means."

This lady's remarks are entitled to the greatest consideration, for they are an indication of what hundreds of ladies have found to be a necessity. It should be borne in mind, however, that it is only pure whiskey which should ever be used, and that Duffy's Pure Malt is the only one which receives the endorsement of scientists and the recommendations of physicians. Do not allow any druggist or grocer to induce you to take any other.

LET LIUQOR ALONE.

Good Advice Given From the Gallows.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 24.—Patrick Fitzpatrick, the murderer of Samuel Early, was hanged in the county jail yard at 11:04 o'clock this morning. Fitzpatrick who walked with firm tread, was accompanied by Rev. Father Griffin, his spiritual adviser, and another priest. On reaching the scaffold he engaged in prayer for ten minutes. At the conclusion of his devotions the condemned man unassisted stepped into position upon the fatal trap door and said in a loud voice: "I advise all young men to let liquor alone."

On the night of September 24, 1891, Patrick Fitzpatrick and Samuel Early quarreled in a saloon on Eleventh street. Fitzpatrick was ejected from the saloon. Hiding behind the screen door, Fitzpatrick waited until Early came out when he assaulted him with a knife, plunging it into his groin, inflicting a wound from which Early died in a few minutes.

A Douglasville (Ga.) paper tells of a quick courtship. A man stopped at a house and asked a country woman for a glass of water. When he had quenched his thirst he asked her if she was married or single. She replied widow. On which the man said he was a widower in search of a wife, "Walk in," answered the widow, "and we'll talk the matter over." One hour later the twain were made one by the nearest minister.

How rich a country France is, and what huge burdens it can, therefore, carry, may be inferred from the figures of the annual budget just introduced in the chamber of deputies. The receipts are estimated at 3,348,258,325 francs, and the expenditures at 3,347,681,375 francs. In other words, France purposes raising and expending in 1892-93 nearly $670,000,000, a thing that it could not do if it did not possess as industrious and frugal a people as can be found in the world.

The Osage Indians are said to be the richest community in the world. They are but 1,509 in number, but they have $8,000,000 deposited to their credit in the treasury at Washington, on which they draw $100,000 interest every three months, and they own 1,470,000 acres of the best land in Oklahoma. Most of them wear blankets, despite their wealth.

A NEW SUBMARINE BOAT.

Special Advantages Claimed for It Over all Others.

An English technical journal of recent date contains a description of a new submarine boat that has been designed by a Portuguese engineer, Don Fontes Pereira de Mello, which posseses several novel features. The boat has a length of 72 feet, a diameter of 11 feet 2 inches, and a displacement when submerged of 100 tons. Power is furnished from a motor working from accumulators, which drive a pair of screws and give a speed of six knots, maintainable for 14 hours.

The boat is submerged by introducing water ballast into reservoirs, and by horizontal propellers, its perfect stability under all conditions being insured by a special arrangement. When submerged, direct communication is kept up with the outer air by means of long hose, which admits of 40 cubic meters of air per hour, and allows the free respiration of natural air. The dome is furnished with an optical tube 16 1-2 feet long and slightly over 4 inches in diameter, within which a set of mirrors reflect the image of the object to be observed, and magnify it before it meets the eye of the observer.

The special advantages claimed for the new boat over all others are: Its absolute stability, even when submerged in a strong current; free respiration, without the necessity for reservoirs of compressed air, and consequent ability to remain under water for lengthened periods; and, finally, the special optical apparatus which permits of a good lookout being kept when the boat is under water, and of distances being accurately measured. The boat is intended solely for coast defence, and is armed with torpedoes.

On would think it would give Blaine the shivers to see how many first-place men are willing to take second place on the ticket with him.

"Save the forests," cries a protection organ. How? By putting a high tariff on Canadian lumber to stimulate the industry of destroying it at home? Very consistent.

The N. Y. Tribune says "let democrats take the responsibility of the free registry bill; it is theirs." The N. Y. Recorder says, it's a triumph for protection and the credit is ours." And thus do the organs play in tune.

The little breath of relief that came to western farmers through a year of exceptionally large crops was claimed by the party of McKinley as a direct result of their high-tax law. Will the party also take the discredit of the present doleful prospect?

Of course we are glad that Spain has taken the duty off American pork, because, according to argument, we were paying that duty, but how about protection to the long-nosed Spanish hog? The times when we should rejoice for ourselves and, Christian-like, for the other fellow, get sadly mixed.

The World says "New York, alone among American cities, belongs to the whole country." Not much does it; the whole country is in no wise responsible for its eccentricities or liable for its bills. When a city begins to cry out, "I rule, I rule," it is like the king who makes the same frequent proclamation—there is grave doubt in the matter.

Great is the sugar record of the McKinley party—$25,000,000 straight into the hands of a trust created and fostered by recent legislation, more than half as much added in the way of bounties to sugar growers and not one cent of revenue to the government by the transaction. Grand scheme, when "the foreigners paid the tariff duty," as it stood.

In the light of the fact of $50,000,000 loss by floods in the Mississippi valley, let the flings about money appropriated for southern and western river and harbor improvement cease. The western farmers have quite enough to discourage them now without hearing the unkind taunts of the puritanical eastern element, which assumes to patronize the rest of the country when it deigns to consider it at all.

Henry Ward Beecher said, in a speech to Brooklynites, in 1884:

The republican party is on its way to destruction. So degraded is the political conscience that the republican leaders pour contempt on the very idea that there can be uncorrupted politics, and they ridicule the conception that independent republicans have any cleaner hands or any higher motives than anybody else. * * * These men are distributing money with an unshamed hand and honeycombing the government with corruption.

Mr. Beecher was making a speech to independent republicans against Blaine and his followers. What will those independent republicans do in the event of Blaine in 1892?

The murderer Deeming, hanged in Melbourne on Monday, went to his swing praying Lord Jesus to receive his spirit. Recalling the divine attribute that made the thief on the cross a subject of heavenly intercession it can be understood how such a spirit as Deeming possessed might be saved, but it is difficult to understand how divine mercy would be extended. The confessed murderer of two wives, four children and all of the Whitechapel victims, nine in number, ought to have an eternity of torture in Satan's hottest firebox, and right there he probably is this blessed minute.

The English parliament will be dissolved, June 20, and English politics will develope a hustle that will discount even our campaign gait. We of this country are accounted a rapid people; England will take a census of her population and industries in less weeks than it takes us years to accomplish a like task. We are not so swift in all movements as we are riotous and noisy. But we do have the honor of doing things in an expensive style and of making necessary more investigating committees than any other country in the world. Either we commit more petty trickery or we demand closer watch upon our servants.

There have been more strikes and lockouts in the labor world since the McKinley law went into effect than ever before during the same period of time in the country's history. Is labor unreasonable? Does the law fail of its purpose? What is the cause of this unrest? What does the Farmer's Alliance mean? If protection will bring prosperity to manufacturers and agriculturists alike why hasn't it been demonstrated during twenty-five years of fair trial? The moneyed classes have become millionaires and the farmers have mortgaged their homes and are staggering under burdens of debt. What do these things mean? An explanation is honestly and earnestly desired.

An Evident Misfit.

Whitelaw Reid was made minister to France because of his stalwart service to Harrison in 1888. When he, and Charles Emory Smith, of the Philadelphia Press, minister to Russia, resigned a few weeks since it was supposed they came back to give Mr. Harrison another powerful lift. In the case of Mr. Reid it is remarked that the New York Tribune has not had one item, in either editorial or news columns, favorable to the second term since the editor returned. On Monday the paper strongly inclined Blaineward, and it is considered significant of the complete change of republican leaders from Harrison to Blaine. The machine is getting away from Benny and will be running wild before the Minneapolis convention is held.

A FARMER FAILS.

Wapakoneta, O., May 24.—(Special)—Yesterday Frederick Haesecker, a farmer living near New Bremen, this county, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Cause, shortage of crops. Liabilities estimated at $6,500; assets nearly $7,000. Ex-Sheriff Wm. Schulenberg, of New Bremen, is assignee.

CLEVELAND AND REFORM

Is the Sentiment of Sandusky County Democrats.

A Fremont Democrat of State Reputation Writes Upon the Subject in a Forceful Manner.

Special Correspondence Toledo Bee.

Fremont, O., May 23.—The democracy of Sandusky county did a good work in the convention on Saturday last, and showed by the most unmistakable manifestations their almost unanimous sentiment for tariff reform and Grover Cleveland, as the representative of this great principle in the coming national campaign, and now let the congressional and the state conventions go and do likewise and see to it that pronounced outspoken and uncompromising tariff reformers and Cleveland men all along the line shall represent the Ohio democracy in the national convention.

And why? Because the future of the democratic party and the highest interests of the nation depend upon the fidelity of the party to the principle of a thorough reform in our system of national taxation.

Taxation and Liberty.

It should not be forgotten that nearly every great battle of liberty in English and American history has been fought on the lines of public taxation. If the democratic party shall prove true to the popular cause in this great struggle, its future is assured.

In the Right.

For 50 years after the crystallization of the political parties of this country under the leadership of Jefferson and Hamilton the democratic party won an almost unbroken series of brilliant presidential victories, because it was in the right and stood as the representative of the interests of the masses rather than those of special classes.

It was the plebian rather than the patrician party, and in its aggressive advocacy of popular rights not only wrested victory after victory from the opposition, but succeeded in those 50 years in making our government a thoroughly democratic rather than an aristocratic republic, which it otherwise might have been. For this the nation has reason to be profoundly grateful to that old democratic party.

In the Wrong.

Unfortunately, however, in the course of the administration of the government under the constitution and almost by force of circumstances the party eventually found itself on the wrong side of a great moral question, that of negro slavery, and from that time it was shorn of its strength, ultimately to go down to inevitable and disastrous defeat.

From that time to the tariff reform message of Grover Cleveland, we are forced to acknowledge that the democratic party, from necessity, perhaps, was a merely negative party, with no aggressive, positive policy, winning occasional victories through the mistakes of the opposition, or on local issues, oftentimes, where defeat would have been more honorable than victory, too frequently seduced by mere politicians into chasing after the treacherous bauble of "availibility," "expediency "and "policy," at the sacrifice of principle, or too timid to assert a policy for which the masses of the people had long been ready.

Cleveland's Tariff

message changed all this and placed the democratic party once more on the high plane it held for the first 50 years of our national history, as the people's party, with an aggressive policy in defense of popular rights, and in opposition to injustice and wrong.

Old-Time Policy.

Cleveland did not originate the policy. Many of us felt that he was too slow to adopt it.

It is indeed the old-time policy of the party, overwhelmed for a time in the cataclysm of our civil war.

Thousands of far-seeing democrats, as indeed thousands of the most intelligent republicans, had seen for years that the true policy of the democrats, the popular party, lay in the line of a thorough reform in our system of national taxation, administered as it has been since the war almost exclusively in the interests of concentrated and concentrating wealth, and in destructive opposition to the interests of the agricultural masses, to the interests of commerce, and even to manufacturing interests themselves.

Cleveland had the courage of the convictions of the democracy, and by his message placed the democratic party once more in the van of the progressive spirit of the age, and now democrats can look the whole world in the face with the prideful assurance that they are fighting the battles of right and progress against injustice and wrong, and that the God of right will be with them.

Now in this, the people's cause, the cause indeed of popular liberty, they can with reason invite the annual exodus of young men from our universities, our colleges and other institutions of learning to their ranks, and they are coming by thousands, convinced as they are of the heresies of the undemocratic, unrepublican doctrines of protective class legislation.

No Mere Sentiment.

The enthusiasm for Cleveland is no mere sentiment. There is no hero worship about it. It springs from an abiding conviction that he above all others stands as the representative of a great principle, and that those opposed to him are as a general thing either hostile or indifferent to this principle, or possibly regardless of all principles whatever. Manipulating politicians who drove Tilden from the field and the party to defeat in 1880, who defeated Cleveland four years ago in New York, and who are now seeking to relegate him with the principle he represents into the background, even though they rob the democracy in the coming campaign of all the soul and enthusiasm which a principle alone can arouse.

The people demand that there shall be no more blundering, no more "Will it win?" but "Is it right?" no more mere scheming for success.

They recognize that the right is the only guarantee for success; that there can be no success not founded in right, even "though," as Carlyle says, "bonfires blaze from north to south, and bells rang, and editors wrote leading articles and the just thing lay trampled out of sight, to all mortal eyes an abolished and annihilated thing!"

The democratic party must prove true to the principle of tariff reform or it has no future. In no other way can it hope for the continued fealty to the organization of the farming and laboring masses.

That principle is the people's cause, the people protest against unjust taxation, the people's impeachment of concentrated wealth for its enormous and oppressive exactions.

There can be but one party in this country to stand as the representative of concentrated wealth and that is the republican party.

In its opposition the democratic party must espouse the people's cause or it has no mission and might as well disband its organization.

Endorsement of Hurd.

The Sandusky county democracy not only did well in endorsing the candidacy of Grover Cleveland, it did the equally proper and logical thing in endorsing the candidacy of Frank Hurd, an old-time apostle of the tariff reform principle, as delegate-at-large from Northwestern Ohio to the national convention.

If the congressional and state conventions shall do as well, Ohio will be represented at Chicago by men true to the principle on which the great victories of the last few years have been won and upon which we have every assurance that a just cause can give, that still greater victories will be won in the immediate future.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

Ashland, O., May 24.—The democracy held their county convention here this afternoon to canvass the vote of the primaries held Saturday. The ticket nominated is as follows: Sheriff, S. R. Jones; recorder, A. M. Kohler; commissioner, George Brubaker; infirmary director, W. F. England; surveyor, F. L. Neider heiser. The candidacy of Hon. R. M. Campbell for circuit judge was indorsed, and he was directed to choose the delegates. The congressional delegates will indorse the renomination of Hon. M. D. Harter.

COTTRELL ARRESTED.

He Asks His Friends to Suspend Judgment Pending the Trial.

Columbus, O., May 24.—Charles Cottrell, incorporation clerk in the office of Secretary of State Poorman, was arrested yesterday as he stepped from the Cleveland train on a warrant charging him with criminal assault. Cottrell has been released on $500 bond. Mr. Cottrell asks his friends to suspend judgment pending the trial.

MISS GENIE BALDWIN

Will Run a Concert Company of Her Own

Next Season and Will Doubtless Be Successful—The Fast Mail at the People's—Coming Attractions.

Miss Genie Baldwin, of this city, who for several seasons has been the soprano soloist with the Famous Schubert Quartette, will not appear with that organization next season, although they have made her flattering offers to remain with them.

This summer she will sing in their musical festivals in the east, and in the fall will put a concert company of her own on the road. The former pianist of the Schubert's will accompany her, also an elocutionist of note, a contralto and a violinist. Miss Baldwin has talent and energy and will doubtless make a success of her undertaking.

At the People's.

The Fast Mail opened a week's engagement at the People's last evening to a crowded house. It seemed to please the audience highly. There are a great many scenic effects in the piece, some of them good and some quite poor. The freight train of 14 cars running across the stage and the working engine were the best of the mechanical features.

The company is a good one, but the full strength of the members is not brought out, as they have to divide honors with the scenery and play to it. The piece will draw big all the week.

Next week Chas. A. Loder's comedy novelty, Oh, What a Night, will appear at the People's. The company contains 14 first-class people, and the piece is full of new songs, dances, burlesques and novelty acts.

The Sun Brothers.

The Sun Brothers' tent show opened last evening at the corner of Monroe and Fourteenth streets. The attendance was good and an excellent performance was given. They will show every evening this week and Saturday afternoon.

C. M. SPITZER

To Put Up a Building on Madison Street.

He Offers $22,000 for the Lot Adjoining the Toledo Club, but It is Refused—Mr. Ketcham May Build.

The other day Mr. C. M. Spitzer offered J. B. Ketcham, 2d $22,000 for the lot between the alley and the Toledo Club building on Madison street, but the offer was refused, Mr. Ketcham asking $25,000.

Two years ago Mr. Ketcham bought the tract for $16,000. The building of the club house enhanced the value, of course, but to the natural growth is due the actual increase in value.

If Mr. Spitzer secures the lot, and he may, as negotiations are still pending, he will erect a handsome steel office building on the site.

Mr. Ketcham, when he returns from Europe, proposes improving the lot or selling it. He has an idea that it would be a good investment to put up a business and office building, and he may do so.

Mr. Spitzer is considering the feasibility of returning permanently to Toledo and making it his home. Should he do so he will take more interest in the development of the city than he has since he went east.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We are very much of the opinion that that Toledo mayor who favors Sunday ball games because they take people out of saloons and worse places, is a practical reformer.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

Fire Alarm Foraker will go to Minneapolis with "Vim, Vigor and Victory" tacked to his hat. Before he has been there long he will probably change the slogan to "Vinegar, Vociferousness and Vituperation."—Chicago Mail.

The McKinley tariff means simply the robbery of the masses by the classes, under sanction of the law, and it will have to go, as every other high protective tariff has had to go in these United States.—San Francisco Examiner.

We consider a Sunday law as good, but it needs qualifications. In other words Sunday legislation should be such that it does not interfere with the right, privilege or religious convictions of others. That would be justice. —Corsicana (Texas) Observer.

The demand for a reconstruction and improvement of our public-school system arises spontaneously and simultaneously from many quarters. One of the first steps will be the separation of the public-school management from politics.—New York World.

Mahone, the one and only, has bobbed up into prominence again. He is going to the Minneapolis convention; and one of Mr. Harrison's pieces of good fortune is the fact that the readjuster is counted among the anti-administration schemers.—Boston Globe.

Foraker says: "I shall vote for Mr. Blaine at Minneapolis under any and all circumstances. The rest of the delegates can vote as they please." How pleased Gov. McKinley and all of Foraker's associates on the delegation ought to be at the gracious privilege accorded them.—Rochester Herald.

The girls in the Detroit pearl button factory have all been locked out because they have joined a union. The pearl button industry is one of those that were to be established for the benefit of American labor by the McKinley law. It will be remembered that when the manufacturers were anxious to get that law passed there was no locking out of union labor.—Chicago Times.

Sir Richard Cartwright should send Lord Salisbury some authoritative statement as to what he thinks should constitute political economy, and Prof. Goldwin Smith will surely cross the ocean at once and explain to the imperial premier the sophistry of protection and the marvellous development of the United States in spite of a protective tariff.—Toronto Empire.

Young McAllister, a scion of "the New York 400," married a beautiful girl on the sly, and now declares: "I have never lived with her and never will." Is that the kind of material "the 400" turns out? It would at least be wise if this young son of New York snobdom would make less use of his tongue. The young lady possibly has friends, and it may be a case where a good old-fashioned larruping would do good as an educator in decency.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The Blaine revival will be as futile as all other movements that have been started during the past six months to induce the secretary to come into the field. The great majority of republicans have made up their minds that he is not and will not be a candidate. Few of the politicians who are now using his name and crying out for his nomination willy-nilly have any hope that he can be persuaded to acquiesce in their plans. They are endeavoring to organize and keep together a combination of delegates under the influence of his name up to the time of the meeting of the convention. We doubt, however, whether this purpose will succeed. It will not be surprising if it shall be frustrated by some action on Mr. Blaine's part in the course of the next two weeks.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

IT WAS A CLOSE CALL.

Toledo Comes Near Having No Tax Levy This Year.

The Board of Equalization Makes Close Connections with the Annual Appropriations for the City.

It was simply an accident that brought the board of equalization together last evening. Had the accident not occurred Toledo would have gone without the annual levy of taxes this year.

It happened in this way. City Clerk Lamb called on President Burdick, of the board of equalization yesterday, for the names of the board, which he desired to publish in the annual report.

"Is it not about time we had a meeting of the board?" Mr. Burdick inquired.

Mr. Lamb did not know, but said he would speak to Auditor Pheatt, which he did. Mr. Pheatt at once communicated with City Solicitor Read, who hunting up the law decided it was necessary to hold the meeting at once—that evening.

There was some tall hustling to have all the members of the board notified and see that all were present.

"It was very fortunate," said Mr. Burdick to a Bee this morning, "a day later and we would have been too late to get the levy through both boards of the council in time to make our report to the auditor of state."

"And the result would have been—"

"Why, that Toledo would be obliged to go without a levy this year. The various departments would be minus the necessary money to carry them through another month."

THE SONG RECITAL

At Hotel Madison Monday Evening.

An Occasion of Rare Enjoyment—A Large Number of Guests Present.

Hotel Madison last night presented a kaleidoscopic scene of brilliant colors, flashing jewels and fair faces, the wealth, beauty and fashion of Toledo, having assembled in response to invitations issued by Mr. Elvin Singer, to a song recital given by himself and pupils.

Every number on the program was a gem. The amateurish features which are generally prominent in a concert of this kind were entirely eliminated and the pupils did their work in a manner that would do credit to finished artists.

A trio, "The Fishers," sung by the Misses Russell, Koehler and Noteman, was the first number on the program and one of the best. The harmonious blending of voices is the result of careful work and both teacher and pupils are to be congratulated.

A bass solo, Amourer's song from "Robin Hood," by Mr. Carl E. Wuerfel, was enthusiastically received.

Mr. Hugh Rodeck sang a tenor solo, "Serenade."

Miss Kate Koehler sang a soprano solo, "Gavotte in Gray," and was encored, but did not respond.

The next number was a violin solo by Mrs. May Barden-Colburn, and her appearance was the signal for hearty applause from those present who knew what enchanting music she draws from the instrument of which she is complete mistress. She was encored repeatedly and kindly responded. Miss Hattie Gasser, in the soprano solo, "Still Wie Die Nicht," was the next number. Miss Gasser has a voice of wonderful strength and sweetness, and her work last night evidenced what she is capable of doing. The applause which showed that the audience fully appreciated her singing, had hardly died away when Mr. Elvin Singer appeared, and the satisfaction of his guests again became very emphatic. He sang a tenor solo in his inimitable manner and received repeated encores and beautiful floral gifts.

The soprano solo by Miss May Russell was very sweet. Mr. Fred Seubert sang a baritone solo, "Romance from Tannhaeuser," in his usual good style and was encored.

Miss Mary Chase made a decided hit in the soprano solo, "Madrigal." Miss Chase has a beautiful, highly cultivated voice.

Mrs. May Barden-Colburn gave another violin solo, "Gavotte," and responded to an encore.

Mrs. J. W. Schanfelberger, of Tiffin, rendered a soprano solo, "Canzonet," in a pleasing manner, and Mr. W. F. Dewey sang a tenor solo, which was well received.

The last number on the program was the quartet, Bella Figlia, from "Rigoletto," with Mr. Elvin Singer as Duke of Mantua; Mr. Carl E. Wuerfel as Rigoletto; Miss Hattie Gasser as Gilda, and Mrs. F. R. Williams as Maddalena. Over this number the music lovers went wild. Mrs. Thos. S. Cook and Miss Edith Belford were accompanists, and the concert was in every respect up to the high musical standard that is characteristic of all Mr. Singer's entertainments.

WANTS MORE MONEY.

Washington, May 24.—Gen. R. F. Dryenforth appeared before the agricultural committee of the house and treated the committee to an interesting account of his experiments in rain-making. The committee were favorably impressed with his remarks and will consider the advisability of inserting a clause in its appropriation bill providing for further experiments. Gen. Dryenforth will conclude his remarks to-morrow before the committee.

WHITEHOUSE NOTES.

Whitehouse, O., May 24.—(Special)—The people are very indignant at the school board for selecting a site for the building near the railroad tracks and noisy and dangerous stone quarries. The people protested, but the people's protest did not cut any figure.

Heavy rain has damaged many fruit blossoms.

Mrs. Griffith is very low.

BEGGING FOR FUNDS.

New York, May 24.—An appeal was issued to-day by Gen. Horace Potter, president of the Grant Monument association, begging the citizens of New York to subscribe before Decoration day the $46,000 required to complete the fund of $350,000 for the building of Gen. Grant's tomb.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Musical Criticism.

To the Editor: The "Damrosch Concert" is doubtless a sweet remembrance to most of those who attended it; or was, until they read the comments of the Blade's critic, when they at once realized that it was only a tolerable performance, and scarcely to be compared to music that the Blade's critic had heard elsewhere. In imagination they saw him sitting from New York to Boston, Paris, Berlin, and even to Bayreuth, else he could not possibly possess such an "educated ear" (wonder what the length of his ears is?) and such thorough knowledge of music as rendered by the world's greatest artists. They realized, also, that it was fortunate for Mr. Damrosch that he visited Toledo, and thereby obtained valuable suggestions which will aid him hereafter.

I was not at the concert, but a neighbor who was says the "Scotch Ideal" was alone worth the price of admission, and when the "fiddles played a piece that sounded just like two hand organs she felt as though she wouldn't miss an opportunity to go again, if she had to live on bread and water for a month to save the money." If some combination of stringed and wind instruments had imitated the unearthly screech of the whistle on Smead's foundry, 'tis hard telling what the consequences would have been. I remark in closing that the Blade's critic could not have heard the Damrosch concert, else he would not have included in his article numbers from the original program which, I am told by musicians who were present, were not performed at all. Some one has said," most anyone can find fault."

ANOTHER OIL PIPE LINE

The Pluto Company Ask the Council for Permission

To Use the Streets—They Will Furnish Oil Fuel—Street Improvements—Other Council Business.

The board of councilmen held a long session last evening and passed upon a large amount of routine matters and small improvements.

Under the call for new business the most important business was an ordinance introduced by Mr. Swain granting to the Pluto Oil company the right to lay an oil fuel pipe line. This line is to cross the river from the East Side at the water works, and not only furnish fuel to Ninth and Fifth ward manufacturing institutions, but also through the city to lower town and out to Auburndale. The ordinance was referred to the street committee without comment.

A number of sidewalk resolutions were sent in by different members and an ordinance from Mr. Taylor was passed, changing the name of Germania street to Lafayette.

A communication was read from Kerlin Bros., the Chester Pipe and Tube company, and Jarecki Manufacturing company, requesting that some steps be taken to settle their claims against the gas trustees. These debts had been contracted by the gas trustees, but the Circuit court had declared them illegal. The matter was referred to the ways and means committee.

The new levy as made out by the ways and means committee and printed elsewhere was approved.

From the street committee ordinances were passed to pave Maplewood avenue and to turnpike Enright street.

Resolutions were adopted to grade Woodruff avenue, to pave Nebraska avenue, to turnpike Nevada street, to turnpike Pratt street, to grade McDonald and State streets, and to pave Putnam street.

The ordinance to pave Fulton street and the resolution to pave Webster street were referred back to the committee.

Other business and matters from the upper board were passed except the ordinance to open and extend Niagara street; the resolutions for improving the alley between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, for improving Scottwood avenue and Missouri street, all of which were referred to the committee.

The resolution to confirm the contract with the Warren-Scharf Paving company was tabled.

WELLS ABANDONED.

The Gas Trustees Hold a Quiet Little Meeting

And Decide to Lease a Large Tract of Undeveloped Territory in Wood County—Routine Business.

Outside of abandoning a few more wells and leasing a large tract of undeveloped territory, the gas trustees did but little business at the regular weekly meeting last evening.

Vice-President Voit is absent from the city. President Greene presided. Dr. Jones is seriously ill and therefore was not present.

Mr. Romeis, from the committee on territory, recommended that city well 14, or Ware No. 3, and 18, or Skinner No. 3, be abandoned and the cases in the same be withdrawn. The wells originally produced 9,800,000 cubic feet daily. The recommendation was adopted.

The bond of Auditor Manton for $10,000 was presented and approved.

The manager recommended that the leases for 1,500 acres on the Whistler tract be relinquished and the well re-sold to Mr. Whistler for $500. Approved.

An agreement with Geo. E. Lorenz for certain gas leases of 918 acres in Wood county was presented. The consideration is $125, and Mr. Lorenz retains the oil rights.

Mr. Backus was opposed to buying undeveloped territory, and he asked that the motion to approve the agreement be submitted in writing. The motion prevailed, Mr. Backus voting "No."

A petition of B. O. Manchester for an extension of line from Broadway on Field avenue was presented and laid on the table.

Secretary Brown presented warranty deed for a lot in Earl's addition, ordered recorded.

Receipts for gas since last meeting were $1,225. Adjourned.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Bucyrus, O., May 24.—Ralph Swanger, while cleaning his rifle at his home in this city, concluded to try his hand shooting at a mark. He inserted a cartridge, but it was prematurely exploded. The ball passed through the side of an adjoining house and struck 4-year old Charlie Dehart, who was playing on a sofa. The ball, a 32-caliber, struck just above the heart, passing through the lung. Probing failed to locate it. The boy is probably fatally injured, though still alive.

CHILD. "Everybody loves you, gran'ma; I wish everybody would love me."

MRS. PINKHAM. "Everyone will love you, my child, if they can confide in you."

The above dialogue tells its own story; even the little child, without knowing why her grandmother is so universally loved, sees in her face a light of intellectual sympathy that satisfies her. That sympathy has extended itself all over the world, for wherever civilized women exist, Mrs. Pinkham is known and reverenced.

THE BOBOLINK'S SONG.

What sound,
The world round,
Most mad joy can express?
What do you say or guess?
Said the farmer gray:
"This is what I say;
This is what I think:
'Tis the note
From the straw-colored throat
Of the bobolink!
He is singing with a will;
There's a tink, tink, tinkle, and a gurgle and a thrill,
He has lilted all the gleaming meadow over,
He has bathed him in the fragrance of the clover,
He is drunk with the perfume
To the tip of every plume!
He is tumbling, pirouetting in his flight,
All a-whirl a merry moment, then alight.
Dead is care!

His finger was laid open and antidotes applied, and now he is out of danger. His employers lost a man in their Kansas City house some time ago from a tarantula bite.

MURDER IN A MONASTERY.

When the Trappist monks of the famous monastery of Aiguebelle, among the vineyards of Savoy, France, assembled at their early devotions on the morning of October 28 last, Brother Ildefonce was not among them. This occasioned comment, for he was very widely known as one of the most rigorously faithful members of this most rigorous of monkish communities. There is no Roman Catholic order in the world which compares in severity of discipline with the Trappists. They rise at 2 o'clock in the morning, spend 12 hours each day in prayer, beside working hard in the vineyard and field, exchange no word of worldly talk, salute each other with the solemn greeting, "Remember death," dig each day a spadeful from the day they enter the monastery to occupy, live on vegetables and water only, sleep on planks with pillows of loose straw, and never disrobe, not even in sickness, from the day they enter the nomastery to the day death overtakes them. Brother Ildefonce, for his devotion and fidelity, was the treasurer of the monastery.

After the morning devotions were over, a monk was sent to the cell of the absent brother to learn the reason of his tardiness. Brother Ildefonce was found lying motionless upon the stone floor. His soiled and tattered gown and cowl were spattered with blood, and there was a pool of clotted blood upon the stones by his head. The monk who found him uttered a cry which summoned others to the spot. Brother Ildefonce was dead. His body was already cold. There was a deep wound in the back of his neck.

A brief examination left no doubt that the monk had been murdered, and that the purpose of the murderer was robbery. The strong chest in the corner of his cell, in which he, as treasurer, had kept a portion of the valuables of the monastery, was open, and its contents were strewn upon the floor. Everything portable of easily negotiable value was missing. It was known that the treasurer kept in the chest at the time two gold watches and chains, a valuable ring, and four wedding rings which novices had left in his keeping, and that he had also lately placed there several Russian bonds and gold coin amounting to about 500 francs. These valuables had disappeared. The monk's keys were also missing.

The police were quickly satisfied that the murder had been committed by some one within the monastery. Suspicion first fell upon a workman who had been employed there the day before. Two days after the murder, however, they learned that Brother Eugene, a novice who was undergoing a probationary term, had disappeared that very morning, and left no trace of his whereabouts. A pair of slippers, damp from recent use, were found in his cell soon after the crime was committed. The police abandoned the suspected workman and started after the novice.

The next day Brother Eugene was arrested at Pierrelatte, 40 miles below Aiguebelle on the Rhone. He had reached there at 2 o'clock in the morning of the day before and taken a room at the Hotel Bruger. He was bare-headed, and explained that he had lost his hat. He said he was on his way to Avignon by rail, but had decided to remain over at Pierrelatte for a little rest. He remained indoors the whole of that day. The next morning he sent a servant for a hat and bought a suit of clothes. Next he went to the hair-dresser's, where it was noticed that he wore the shoes and stockings of Trappist monk. The hair-dresser had heard of the murder at Aiguebelle and informed the police. Brother Eugene was arrested and searched. A Trappist cross was found upon him, and two packages under his bed in the hotel contained all the missing property. He confessed that he had murdered Brother Ildefonce. He said his name was Mathias Hadelt, that he was 30 years old and was a native of Sarrelouis in Rhenish Prussia.

He was tried at the Drome Assizes at Valenci early in May, when the judge gave a very remarkable account of his former record. His life had been one of extraordinary crime. He was sentenced at various times in Switzerland, Germany, Italy, and Bosnia under various aliases. Monasteries were his favorite refuge. He sought admission to them in order to rob, even as at Aiguebelle to murder. In 1871 he was a novice at the Chartreuse convent Bosserville, near Nancy, and a few months later a soldier in the Seventy-fourth Prussian infantry at Hanover. He deserted in 1872, taking with him the money of the mess. He was found and sentenced to six months' imprisonment with military degradation. In 1874 he escaped from the fortress of Mayence, and sought refuge in Luxemburg, where he lived four years as a cobbler. In 1879 he joined the Lazarist order in Paris as a novice. He disappeared in the following year, his traces being lost for a time. In 1881 he became a servant to Count von Spee at Aix-la-Chapelle. At the end of 1881 he entered the Trappist convent at Mariastern, near Banjaluka, Bosnia, where he passed himself off as the illigimate son of Count von Spee. In 1882 he disappeared, having robbed the Abbot. He was arrested, played insanity, and was released for lack of evidence. He next turned up in 1885 near Lucerne in the character of a hermit. He gained a great reputation for holiness, but left Switzerland the year following, having embezzled money right and left.

He then appeared at Colmar, in Alsace, under the name of Count von Spee, his former master. He lived in grand style, but never paid his servants, and they caused him to be arrested and sentenced to six months' imprisonment. Set free on ticket-of-leave on account of ill health, he returned to France, enlisted in the Foreign Legion, but obtained his release in 1886 on account of an alleged cancer in the stomach. There is another blank page until 1887, when he joined the Trappists of Chambarand, in Lorraine, passing himself off a second time as the son of Count von Spee. He was expelled for bad conduct, and then resided in Metz under the name of Jacques Hubig, whose papers he had stolen, and afterward, with the Dominicans at Dusseldorf, where he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for theft. On his release in 1890 he entered the service of a Dusseldorf chemist, and left his master after a few weeks, taking away fifty francs with him. He then took the name of Joubert, and entered the convent of Aiguebelle on the recommendation of a Dominican father. The judge having asked the prisoner why he would not admit his identity, he replied that he would not dishonor an ancient and noble family. Maitre Joubert, a barrister at Nancy, recognized Hadelt, whose sister had been a servant to M. Joubert's father. He was also recognized by three monks of monasteries where he had been formerly an inmate.

In his confession to the court he said that he murdered the monk in his cell with a hammer. He persisted, however, that robbery was not his motive, and tried to inculpate other monks with the theft of the money and jewels. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and he was sentenced to death by the guillotine.—New York Sun.

NOTES FOR AMATEUR FARMERS.

Now is the time to plant soft crabs.

Pepper should be planted in hot weather.

You should always use a soft sponge in washing sheep.

Mosquitoes should be muzzled from February 28 until December 1.

Raisins are best planted in sandy soil. This prevents them from becoming dry.

Never shake your pumpkin trees. Take a ladder and pick them to prevent bruising.

Sweet potatoes, to be well kept during the winter, should be stored in a fireproof safe.

The best way to smoke hams is to fasten your hogs in the pen and put a match to the building.

A good way to rid potato vines of the Colorado beetle is to catch the bug between the thumb and forefinger and then crush it between the teeth.

Fourteenth Street Paving.

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned up to 12 o'clock at noon of Monday,

THE 13TH DAY OF JUNE, 1892,

for improving Fourteenth street, from the paving in Washington street to the paving in Monroe street by paving the central twenty-six feet thereof with either cedar block, vitrified brick, or Trinidad asphalt laid on foundation of hydraulic cement concrete, together with the necessary grading, curbing, crosswalks, drainage, etc.

The contractor or contractors who shall do the work herein provided for shall be paid for that part of the improvement lying in the street intersections in cash within ninety days after the acceptance of the work and the remainder of the cost will be paid in an assessment levied upon the abutting property on said Fourteenth street, from Washington street to Monroe street, payable in two installments, one-half in ten days after the passage and legal publication of the assessing ordinance, and the remainder in one year thereafter.

All bids must be written with ink and the price of each item shall be written out in full as well as in figures. Each bid must contain the full name of every person interested in the same. All parties filing bids for the matters specified in this notice, must deposit with the city clerk on each bid the sum of One Hundred Dollars. All deposits to be in cash or certified check on a bank doing a regular banking business in the city of Toledo, and accompanied by an agreement signed by the bidder and two disinterested persons, guaranteeing that, if the bid is accepted, a contract will be entered into—otherwise the amount deposited to be forfeited to the city; and in case a contract is enterd into, said deposit to remain until the first estimate of work done, (or double the amount of deposit,) is reported to the common council.

Bidders will be required to endorse their names on the outside of the envelope containing their proposal, and what the bid is for, the same to be filed with the city clerk. Bids not filed in accordance with the above requirements will be rejected.

Blank bids and envelopes can be obtained of the undersigned or of the city civil engineer.

Bidders must specify the time within which they will commence and complete the work after the acceptance of their bid.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the city civil engineer.

"EVERY WORD TRUE!"

So Says the Writer of That Famous Letter.

He Reiterates His Statements, Produces Additional Proof and Clearly Defines His Position.

(N. Y. Sun.)

It would be difficult to measure the interest and comment, not to say excitement, which the published letter of Dr. R. A. Gunn, which appeared in the papers yesterday, has occasioned. The prominence of the doctor and the unusual nature of the letter have both tended to add interest to the subject and make it really the talk of the town.

I called upon Dr. Gunn at his residence, No. 124 West Forty-seventh street, yesterday afternoon. I found the reception room crowded, and it was only after an hour's waiting that I succeeded in obtaining an interview.

Dr. Gunn is a distinguished-looking man, and impressed me at once by his manly bearing and air of sincerity. I took the seat he courteously offered me, and said:

"Are you aware, doctor, of the commotion your letter has caused?"

Dr. Gunn smiled, and replied: "Things out of the ordinary usually cause comment. It is not a common thing for physicians to indorse and cordially recommend medicines other than those in the Materia Medica. History is full of instances of scientists who have indorsed discoveries they believe to be valuable, and have been denounced for so doing, and yet these same discoveries are blessing the world today. I hope I have the manhood and courage to be true to my convictions, and that is why I so openly and unhesitatingly indorse Warner's Safe Cure as being the greatest of modern discoveries for the cure of diseases which have baffled the highest skill of the medical profession."

I was impressed with the earnestness of the doctor, and saw that he meant every word that he said.

"How long have you known of this remedy, doctor?" I asked.

"Nearly ten years," he replied. "My attention was originally called to the Safe Cure by a serious case of Bright's disease, which was considered hopeless, and yet, much to my surprise, under its use the patient recovered. I have tried it in other cases since then constantly, and my original faith in its power has been confirmed. I have seen patients recover from inflammation of the bladder, gravel and Bright's disease when all other treatment had failed, and I have found it especially efficient in all female troubles."

"Can you specify any particular cases, doctor?" I asked.

"That is a delicate thing to do," the doctor replied; "but, as I always keep a written record of my cases, I can accommodate you."

Thereupon the doctor opened his desk and produced his record book. Turning over the leaves he said:

"Here is a case of a gentleman who was a great sufferer from inflammation of the bladder of long standing. He had consulted a number of physicians without benefit. When first consulted I myself tried the usual methods of treatment, but without success, and I finally advised him to try Warner's Safe Cure. He felt better from the start, and in a few weeks was entirely cured."

The doctor turned a few pages further, and then said:

"Here is another case. It is that of a gentleman who had frequent attacks of renal calculi, which, as you know, is gravel forming in the kidneys. He had never been able to prevent these formations, but after an unusually severe attack I recommended him to try the Safe Cure, which he did, and, although it is three years since he took the remedy, he has never had an attack since."

The doctor continued to turn the leaves of his book, and suddenly exclaimed:

"Here is a most remarkable case. It is that of a lady who had suffered for some time from Bright's disease. She became enciente, and about the fourth month suddenly became blind, had convulsions, and finally fell into a state of coma, caused by uremic or kidney poison. Several physicians who saw her said she could not live, and in this view I fully concurred. As she could still swallow I said, as a last resort, that they might try Warner's Safe Cure. They did so, and to the surprise of everyone she recovered. She has since given birth to a living child, and is perfectly well."

"Those are certainly most wonderful cases, doctor," I said, "and while I do not for a moment question their authenticity I would consider it a great favor if you would give me their names. I think the importance of the subject would fully justify it."

"In the interest of other sufferers I think you are correct," Dr. Gunn finally observed, after a moment's thought. "Both the lady and her husband are so rejoiced, so grateful, over her recovery, that I know she is only too glad to have others hear of it. The lady is Mrs. Eames, wife of the well-known costumer. She was not only restored, but is in perfect health today."

I thanked the doctor for his courteous reception, for the valuable information imparted, and I feel assured that his generous and humane nature will prevent him from feeling other than glad at seeing this interview published for the benefit of suffering humanity.

BORDER TROUBLE.

A Plucky American Locked Up in Mexico.

San Diego, Cal., May 24.—Constable Oberlander tried to arrest a man from Senora, charged with kidnaping, but he ventured over the line and was imprisoned himself. Saturday night he induced the guard to remove the shackles from his arm so he could write a letter, when he knocked out the guard and started for American soil.

He ran two miles at a great pace, crossed the boundary, but was overhauled and locked up. Much feeling prevails and there may be bloodshed, as armed gangs of Americans and Mexicans are on the watch on the line.

THE FAITH.

The Committee Reports to the Presbyterian Assembly.

Portland, Ogn., May 24.—At the session of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church the report of the committee appointed to revise the confession of faith was presented by Dr. W. C. Roberts.

It contains two new chapters, one relating to the work of the holy spirit and the other to the missionary spirit. Besides these new chapters, 26 sections in 18 other chapters have been changed.

Several of the members of the committee have signed the report but have made exceptions to certain parts of it.

MILLIONS OF MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

FLOODED LANDS.

Ozark, Ark., May 24.—Reports from Mulberry, White Oak and Altus, show that at least 20,000 acres of the best farm lande in Franklin county is covered with water.

The cotton average in this county will be reduced 33 per cent. Hundreds of families are homeless and but for the kindness of the neighbors would now be starving. The lowest estimate of the loss is $100,000 and the highest $250,000.

THEY WON'T STOP.

Washington, May 24.—The efforts of the people who have been urging congress to prohibit the transmission through the mails of publications containing what is known as police news have been fruitless, for the bill introduced for this purpose by Senator Dolph was adversely reported to the senate from the committee on postoffices and postroads.

HOW TOLEDO BABIES LIVED.

One of the oldest nurses in Toledo made a statement yesterday that every mother should remember. "When any of my babies are not doing well," she said, "I put them at once on lactated food. It is surprising to see how quickly they pick up. In several families the mothers feel that lactated food actually saved the lives of their children."

CORRIGAN AND IRELAND.

The Former Talks on the Latter's Interview.

The School Question Still Bothering the Heads of the Catholic Church.

New York, May 24.—A Herald reporter asked Archbishop Corrigan last night what he cared to say of the interview had with Archbishop Ireland in Rome on Saturday. The archbishop read the dispatch from Rome carefully and then dictated the following reply:

"In reply to your question, I have to say that the views of the archbishop of St. Paul and myself are not so hard to be reconciled, providing confusion of terms be avoided. By the 'Faribault system' one may understand either the general theory of secularizing parochial schools or the particular expedient adopted in the special cases of Faribault and Stillwater. The cablegram read by me in Albany used the phrase in the former sense. Archbishop Ireland uses it in the latter. I have never for an instant maintained that the 'Faribault plan' in this restricted sense was condemned; on the contrary, I always declared it was tolerated—nothing more. The larger question of the provision to be made is for Catholic children who, for whatever reason, do not attend Catholic schools, and who are now attending the public schools, has not yet been decided and is to be considered in the meeting of the archbishops of the United States, which will be held next October.

"It is proper to bear in mind that the 'Faribault plan,' according to the definition given by Archbishop Ireland himself, published December 14, 1891, means 'the handing over of a Catholic school, fit in all respects to be put on a line with public schools, to the board of education.' His plan, therefore, if this definition be adhered to, does not affect the 1,500,000 Catholic children who are not found today in schools of their own faith. My impression, however, is that another view of the Faibault plan now obtains, judging from the cablegram of to-day of the printed declarations of those who profess to be well-informed on the subject.

"Regarding the Civita Catolica, its doctrinal articles as a matter of fact are submitted to the vatican before they appear in print. This was notably the case with the article in the March number, which has occasioned so much comment, and in regard to which the veracious cablegram from Rome informed the world that the vatican had disapproved and condemned it. The archbishop of St. Paul would settle the dispute forever by publishing the alleged letter of condemnation, as also his memorial to the congregation, in which his theories are fully explained. Without the aid of these documents we are still groping in the dark.

"The importance of the subject matter alone persuades me to notice this cablegram of to-day, as otherwise silence would be interpreted to mean consent. No one can have higher appreciation than I of the zeal, energy and courage of the archbishop of St. Paul. His friends and admirers would be only too thankful if he possessed in an equal degree the grace and courtesy, the virtue of prudence and attention to the value of words."

LABOR COMMISSIONERS.

Interesting Session Opened in Denver.

For the First Time in the History of the Organization it is Meeting West of the Big River.

Denver, Colo., May 24.—The annual convention of the American Association of State Labor commissioners opened here to-day, with Hon. Lester Bowdine, state labor commissioner of Colorado, presiding.

Among those present are F. H. Belton, of Kansas, Carrol D. Wright, of Washington, Charles S. Peck, of New York, an intimate and trusted friend of Senator Hill, W. A. Peelle, chief of the bureau of statistics of Indiana, and many others.

The association is composed of the commissioners and other deputies of the various states and territories which have state departments of labor. It has been in existence for ten years, and in the exchange of ideas at its conventions and in the systematic gathering of statistics in regard to all phrases of the labor question it has accomplished a vast amount of good, both to the employers of labor and to the employees.

Among the questions which have been taken up for consideration in the various states are the child and women questions, the investigation of tenement house abuses, the sanitary condition of workshops, factory inspectors, the Chinese question and employers' liabilities.

These statistics are looked upon by the legislatures of the various states as a sound basis for legislation in regard to labor questions, and nearly all such legislation has come from their recommendations to such legislatures. It is the first convention that has been held west of the Mississippi river.

"THANK YOU."

Is what Mrs. Paisley, of Newburgh, N. Y., always says to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cured her of a severe case of scrofula and eczema, and she has reason to be grateful.

If you are bilious take Hood's Pills.

WEST MILL GROVE.

Gossip of Interest from a Near-by Town.

West Mill Grove, O., May 24.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Saxby, of Weston, O., made their parents, B. H. Saxby, a visit here last week.

The school commencement given here was a grand success. The graduates were Miss Alma Miller, V. I. Miller, Howard De Witt, Howard McRill, Dan Hall, Ralph Burdick, all of whom rendered their parts well. Mr. Geo. P. Chaterton, of Delaware, O., made a fine speech to the class, and rendered some very fine music.

The class showed that their Prof. E. M. Latham, had spared no pains to bring them up to the point they had attained. Mr. Latham generally gave satisfaction in his school. Miss Eva Painter, of the lower room, gave general satisfaction.

Mrs. Emmit Ash, of Toledo, is here, sick.

Mrs. Roy McRill, of this place, who is attending business college at Toledo, was home on a visit over Sunday.

The Rev. Frink, of Toledo, will deliver a memorial address here Sunday.

Mayor Murphy, of Bowling Green, will deliver the address here Memorial day. Services will be in the evening.

FOSTORIA GOSSIP.

The Democrat Changes Hands—General Mention.

Fostoria, O., May 24.—(Special)—The Fostoria high school commencement takes place next Friday evening, and the annual banquet of the alumni occurs on next Monday evening.

Sixteen members of the Toledo Valley Scottish Rite lodge and Demolay commandery, of Tiffin, attended the funeral of O. A. Drury, here Sunday.

C. L. Zahm, for the past four years publsiher of the Democrat, of this city, has sold his interest in the Times Publishing company to G. G. Grimes, formerly of Bairdstown, lately of North Baltimore.

The annual convention of the Seneca County Sunday School union met here yesterday and to-day; a large and successful convention.

Will be found an excellent remedy for sick headache. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Thousands of letters from people who have used them prove this fact. Try them.

TO ABOLISH POST TRADERS.

Washington, May 23.—The committee on military affairs through Mr. Proctor today made a favorable report to the senate on the bill providing that vacancies in army post tradership shall not be filled. The object of the bill is to abolish post tradersships.

A certain cure for malarial fevers is found in Simmons Liver Regulator.

IN THE HOUSE.

District of Columbia Business Takes Up the Time.

Washington, May 23.—House—The new rule requiring the house to meet at 11 o'clock went into effect this morning, about 110 members being present at that hour.

Mr. Watson offered his resolution requiring the committee on ways and means to report his sub-treasury bill and the house adopted the resolution.

This being district day the house proceeded to consider bills relating to the Distrcit of Columbia. Mr. Holman endeavored to secure consideration for the sundry civil bill and asked Mr. Hemphill, chairman of the district committee, to give way until to-morrow.

Mr. Hatch, dem., said that if the gentleman from South Carolina yielded today he thought he would not get an opportunity to-morrow, as he (Hatch) intended to antagonize any further business with the anti-option bill.

The consideration of district bills was proceeded with and the first bill passed was to provide for the regulation of the equipment and operation of street railway lines and to confer upon the commissioners ample power to compel compliance therewith.

On motion of Mr. O'Neill, Missouri, an amendment was adopted provided for all night cars.

HOWARD IS PLAIN SPOKEN.

He Does Not Burden the Wires with Nonsense.

New York, May 23.—The message sent by bicycles from Gen. Miles at Chicago, which was left with the watchman of the steamboat Chester A. Arthur by Lieut. Treat last night when he found that the boat to Governor's island had left before he arrived, was delivered to Gen. Howard at his office on the island early this morning.

When asked his opinion of the bicycle relay service Gen. Howard said he had not given the subject sufficient consideration to warrant his making any direct reply, but he thought that under the prevailing unfavorable circumstances the trip was made in remarkably quick time. In answer to Gen. Miles' message, Gen. Howard has sent the following letter by mail:

Major-General Nelson A. Miles, Headquarters Department of the Missouri, Chicago, Ill.:

General: Your communication by line of cycle couriers was delivered at its destination about 1 o'clock this morning. The details of hardships, the endurance, and the victories of the couriers are in the daily press.

Very respectfully yours,
O. O. HOWARD, Major General,
U. S. Army.

LABOR CONFERENCE.

A Largely Attended Meeting in London.

London, May 23.—The labor conference to-day was largely attended. Mr. Kelly, of Manchester, was chosen chairman. He urged that efforts should be made to form a powerful labor party in parliament.

One of the speakers said that the aristocratic and moneyed classes filled parliament to protect their own interests. Despite all the promises made at New Castle and elsewhere, every politician of note had taken a negative position on matters affecting the democracy.

Mr. Gladstone was evasive and had snubbed the labor party. Mr. Morley had insulted it; Lord Salisbury twitted at it; Mr. Balfour had been cynical, and Lord Randolph Churchill had been hysterical.

There was not a representative man in either party who was not opposed to the labor program. The ruling classes cared nothing that the millions were weltering in ignorance and poverty, so long as their own pockets were well filled.

NO PARTIALITY.

Say Raum's Witnesses in the Pension Office Investigation.

Washington, May 23.—The pension office investigating committee resumed its sessions to-day. Judge Payson examined witnesses in rebuttal, the first being Warner White, chief of the executive division. He said that no preference had been given any attorney prosecuting claims before the office at any time during his long connection with the bureau.

F. H. Allen, chief of the southern division, corroborated the previous witness that no preference had been shown attorneys having cases before the office. During his connection as chief of the division he had never had any personal knowledge that Commissioner Raum had shown favoritism to Lemon or any other attorney having cases before the office. He said that after the issuance of order 149, in relation to the completed files, Lemon had comparatively few cases in shape to go on the completed files. While he (the witness) was opposed to the order at the time it was issued on account of the great confusion that would follow, he was now in favor of the system because the clerks had been educated up to it and, having fully understood it, they were able to get the cases up with great dispatch. He would not go back to the old system.

Other witnesses employed in the pension office corroborated the statement that no partiality had been shown Lemon or any other attorney. The committee adjourned till Wednesday.

WESTERN PASSENGER ASSOCIATION.

Chicago, May 23.—General managers of the roads in the Western Passenger association are in session to-day discussing the appointment of a successor to W. W. Finley, as chairman of the association.

John W. Fairthorn, chairman of the Southwestern Railroad and Steamship association, seems to be the favorite for the place. F. C. Roland, vice-chairman of the Central Traffic association, may be offered the place, although he is not seeking it.

BANCROFT GETS LEFT.

Washington, May 23.—As a result of the trouble between Secretary Blaine and Frederick A. Bancroft, late librarian of the state department, the president to-day notified the senate of his withdrawal of Mr. Bancroft's nomination to be consul of the United States at Brunswick, Germany.

WILL ADJOURN ON FRIDAY.

London, May 23.—The house of commons will adjourn on Friday next, the 27th instant, until after Whit Sunday and the date of reassembling will depend upon the amount of business disposed of before adjournment.

NAVAL PROMOTION.

Washington, May 23.—The president sent to the senate to-day the nomination of Second Lieutenant Clarence L. A. Ingate of the marine corps, to be first lieutenant.

"What's that you have ordered, Jack?"

"A wineglass full of Johann Hoff's Malt Extract. It's the finest thing in the world for indigestion. I take it regularly with my meal."

Indigestion is a much prevalent American disease. Too much starchy food will cause it. Rich food and sedentary habits also. Johann Hoff's Malt Extract is a positive safeguard. It increases the energy of the stomach and the intestinal canal, and stimulates the secretion of the proper quantity of diluting fluids. Besides this, the extract reduces the chemical reception of nourishing substances, both in solid and liquid state (this means you can eat a hearty meal without hurt), as well as their conversion to the form most suited for assimilation. The whole idea is—it assists nature. Eisner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents and Importers of Mineral Waters, 6 Barclay street, New York. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. The genuine must have the signature of "Johann Hoff" on the neck of every bottle.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

There is Every Evidence that It Will Be Greatly Extended.

New York, May 23.—The extension of the big strike of the granite men against the New England granite manufacturers association seems imminent.

The several striking trades in this city including the paving cutters, the grainte cutters and the pavers, have consolidated and the first meeting of the joint committee appointed from these organizations was held his morning.

The committee was in secret session for nearly two hours and it is understood there was an earnest discussion and that all the men evinced a stern determination to accomplish something before many days. Another meeting is to be held this afternoon to further discuss the situation.

About fifty pavers were put at work this morning on lower Broadway by Contractor Crimmins. The men worked at replacing old blocks, but when an attempt was made to have them use new stone they quit work.

UNKNOWN SCHOONER SUNK.

In Collision With the British Ship Airlie.

Dundee, May 23.—The British ship Airlie, which left Calcutta January 27, arrived here to-day and reports a serious disaster. When off Yarmouth she came in collision with an unknown schooner. The schooner was so badly damaged that she sank almost immediately and it is believed that every person on board was drowned.

The Airlie lost her jibboom, but was otherwise uninjured.

TO MARRY MISS BLAINE.

Washington, May 23.—Mr. Beale, the United States minister to Persia, is in this city, having arrived here yetserday. He is on a leave of absence. It is said that his presence here at this time is for the purpose of marrying Miss Hattie Blaine, the youngest daughetr of Secretary Blaine. His engagement to Miss Blaine has been standing for over a year. It is stated that the wedding may take place before the departure of society for the seashore and mountains.

SEVEN DROWNED.

Berne, May 23.—By the capsizing of a barque on Lake Zurich to-day seven pensioners of the Wurmstach convent were drowned. The other eight occupants of the boat were saved.

EVERY FAMILY

Should be provided with Ayer's Pills. No other aperient is in such general demand or so highly recommended by the profession. Mild but thorough in operation, these pills are the best of all remedies for constipation, biliousness, heartburn, indigestion, flatuleney, loss of appetite, liver complaint, and sick headache. They break up colds, fevers, and malaria, relieve rheumatism and neuralgia, and are indispensable to travelers, either by land or sea. Sugar-coated and compounded of the purest vegetable cathartics, they may be taken with impunity by old and young. Physicians recommend these pills in preference to any other. H. W. Hersh, Judsonia, Ark., says: "In 1853, by the advice of a friend, I began the use of Ayer's Pills as a remedy for biliousness, constipation, high fevers, and colds. They served me better than anything I had previously tried, and I have used them in attacks of that sort ever since."

IN TRADING CIRCLES.

Both at Our Home and Abroad.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Currents for Produce and Other Articles.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are 116,456 bu and at five other western points 168,741 bu.

The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were: Wheat 165,206 bu and flour to an aggregate of 260,000. Exports of corn 90,047 bu and of oats 45,914 bu.

English markets are easier for wheat and corn at opening.

Some Foreign Crops.

The reports from the wheat crop of Italy and Spain have heretofore been quite favorable, but mail advices as late as the 11th inst. report incessant rain and tempests of wind, which have produced deplorable reusits to the wheat. In Spain, while the complaints are less pronounced, there is a change in the condition of the crop also by continued wet weather. Dealers in wheat will please note that we have not yet made and harvested the wheat crops.

Bradstreet's report of the visible supply makes wheat decreased east of the Rockies 4,559,000 bu. Pacific coast increased 154,000 bu. Net decrease 4,405,000 bu. Corn decreased 1,700,000 bu, oats decreased 1,332,000 bu.

The large decrease in the ocean stock has evidently been reckoned a bull element, but considering all the circumstances of the deal it seems to indicate a falling off in demand, and that would not be a bull element. Anyhow, that feature is about the only new thing in the markets to-day to bull wheat and corn on. The general character of the weather is much improved, and the northwest is reported as doing some wheat sowing.

Prices have been better to-day, and the markets very steady. The again has not been large, the range of improvement has been 1-4c to 3-4c on July wheat.

Corn has improved east and west and closes higher.

In New York May and July wheat closed 3-4c higher. May corn 4c higher. July 7-8c and May oats ½c higher.

In Chicago May wheat closed 3-8c and July 3-4c higher. May corn 1c and July 3-4c, and May oats 3-8c higher.

In Toledo.—Business continues very light. The support of outside orders is much wanted, but the market for wheat has been firm and the fluctuations light. The gain in closing prices is 1-4c to 1-2c. On the call July wheat sold at 86 3-4c, and August at 85c. After the call May sold at 92 3-8c to 3-4c, a gain of 1-4c. Small sales of June at 90 1-2c. July sold at 86 1-2 to 3-4c, a gain of 3-8c; August at 85c to 1-4c, a gain of 1-2c.

Cash wheat was in light request. Our receipts to-day are 41,700 bus. No. 2 soft sold at 92 1-8c to 92 3-4c, a gain of 1-4c. No. 3 soft at 88 1-2c and in L. S. at 89c.

Corn—On the call May sold at 49c. After the call No. 2 cash and May at 50c. Oats, No. 2, 32 1-2c bid; No. 2 white 34 1-2c bid. Rye, No. 2 at 81 1-2c.

Sugar trust, Susquehanna & Western preferred, W. & L. E., Northern Pacific preferred, Rock Island, Missouri Pacific, and Lead trust were the most active speculatives of the morning's dealings. The trading in the others was on a very limited scale. The sales for the two hours to noon amounted to 161,400 shares. Prices were somewhat unsettled. The only stocks that displayed any strength were Sugar trust, Susquehanna & Western preferred, and New Lead common. The others were weak during the greater part and at noon were down 1-8 to 1 7-8 per cent, the latter in Missouri Pacific. At this writing the market is dull and prices weak.

Flour moderately active with prices rather weak; city mill extra $4.50@4.60; for West Indies; Minneapolis extra $2.65@4.90; superfine $2.35@3.00; fine $1.80@2.50.

Turpentine quiet and easier at 31 1-2@32c. Rosin dull; strained to good, $1 45@1 50. Tallow dull; prime city, 4 11-16@4 3-4c. Petroleum nominal. Freights quiet and easier; grain to London, steam, 2 1-2d.

OHIO CROPS.

The Ohio board of agriculture have issued the following summary of conditions in counties:

Williams—Excessive rains delayed farm work. Oats not all sown. Very little plowing done. Fruit in full bloom with fair prospects for a good crop.

Defiance—Continued rains retarded farm work of all kinds. Little corn planted; 30 per cent of the plowing yet to be done. Wheat, oats and potatoes slightly damaged on low lands. Fruit prospects fair.

Fulton—Wheat is growing well except on low ground, where it is damaged by water; oats and early potatoes are also slightly damaged. Rains have put a stop to plowing for corn.

Henry—Too much rain for the crops; oats, clover and barley slightly damaged. Farm work at a standstill. Very little corn planted. Fair prospects for fruit.

Putnam—Excessive rains injurious to potatoes and retard plowing for corn. Wheat on low grounds turning yellow; oats doing nicely. Good prospects for fruit. Rainfall during week, 3.42 in. at Leipsic.

Lucas—Wheat and grass growing finely. Oats looking badly and in places nearly drowned out. Very little corn planted, and not more than one-half the ground plowed. Apple, pear and cherry trees in full bloom. Rainfall .93 inches in seven days at Toledo.

Wood—Wheat beginning to show the bad effects of continued wet weather, and oats on low ground are somewhat damaged. Very little corn planted and ground in bad condition. Fruit prospects generally good.

Hancock—Wheat and grass on high ground are doing well, but on the low and undrained lands the blades are turning yellow, and oats are drowned out. Farm work at a stand still. Corn and potatoes planted early rotting in the ground; but small amount of either planted yet, owing to wet condition of ground. Fair prospect for fruit. Rainfall for week, 2.20 inches on four days at Arcadia and Findlay.

Ottawa—Rains delayed farm work of all kinds and caused slight damage to fruit bloom.

Sandusky—Wheat, oats and grass doing well. Farm work backward, except on well-drained land. Very little corn planted. Prospects good for apples, cherries, pears and berries.

Seneca—Rains beneficial to wheat and grass, but slightly damaged oats. Corn planting and plowing stopped. Pastures too wet to turn stock upon them. Fruit prospects good for an average crop. Rainfall for week, 2.50 inches on four days at Adrian, and 2.21 inches at Tiffin.

Wyandot—Too wet for farm work. Wheat and grass on well drained land doing well. Oats and potatoes on low ground growing poorly. Fair prospects for fruit crop. Rainfall for week, 2.43 inches on four days at Upper Sandusky.

Crawford—Too much rain. Many wheat and grass fields flooded. Very little corn planted and much plowing yet to be done. Potatoes backward. Fruit prospects good. Rainfall for week, 3.10 on five days at Bucyrus.

Erie—Continued wet weather delays corn planting and farm work. Very few potatoes planted. Wheat, oats and barley slightly injured. Prospects fair for good crop fruits. Rainfall for week, .85 inches on five days at Sandusky.

Huron—Wet weather stopped farm work. But little corn planted. A few potatoes planted but rain is causing them to rot. Much plowing yet to be done. Wheat and grass growing fairly. Rainfall during week, 1.46 inches, on three days at Bellevue.

CHARGES SUSTAINED

Against John Gorman, Judge of Election.

The Board of Elections In Secret Session Concludes That He Marked a Ballot and Acted Accordingly.

The board of elections held an executive session yesterday afternoon, to consider the charges preferred against John Gorman, acting as judge of election this spring at precinct C, of the Fifth ward.

Complaint was made that he marked a ballot cast by a certain elector by tearing off the corner, as it was being deposited by one of the other judges.

The board, after due deliberation, came to the conclusion that the charges had been thoroughly substantiated beyond all reasonable doubt, and dismissed Gorman from the service. Whether any further action will be taken has not yet been determined upon.

NOT A POLITICIAN.

I don't spend none o' my good time in politicks an' sich;
I ain't a-makin' folks grow poor, an' me a-gettin' rich;
I ain't a-pesterin' anyone—jes' livin' at my ease,
A-huntin' when I want to an' fishin' when I please!

Jes' let 'em take the offices an' run 'em fur an' nigh;
I'd ruther have a violet from a girl's hand—sweet an' shy,
Than run the whole United States! So, brethren, let her roll,
For a streak o' April sunshine is jes' lightin' up my soul!

Give me my birds a-singin' in the sweet, salutin' trees,
A-lavin' an' a-wavin' all their blossoms in the breeze!
Give me my daisied meadows, jes' a-smilin' to the blue,
An' the bendin' trees above 'em jes' a-bowin' "howdy-do!"

An' the country girls—God bless 'em an' dress 'em plain an' sweet,
Jes' like He does the violets that purple at their feet—
The girls a-huntin' honey in their bonnets an' their curls—
O, what is all your money to the red lips of the girls?

While the wonderin' world is tangled in the sunlight an' the rain!
We ain't a-pesterin' anyone—jes' livin' at our ease,
A-huntin' when we want to, an' fishin' when we please!

DOC SMITH NOT IN IT.

R. H. Adams Will Probably be Deputy Oil Inspector.

Charles Hall Runs a Close Second with N. D. Cochran Bringing Up the Rear.

"Doc" Smith has been one of leading candidates for the deputy oil inspectorship. He is the Bolles-Second-Ward candidate but he is not in it just now.

"Doc" has been evidently hoodwinked by Moxie, et al., and while he is making a desperate fight he recognizes the fact that he is beaten.

The successful candidate will probably be R. H. Adams, the assistant secretary of the Toledo Republican club, of turtle soup fame.

Adams is the administration candidate and is the first choice because of his apostasy from Foraker during the senatorial fight.

Charles Hall, of the Second ward, is running a good race and has strong endorsements and if the Forakerites have any influence left they will defeat Adams and Hall will then have it about as he wants it.

Neg Cochran is close on Hall and is the fourth of some 20 odd candidates who expect to get there.

The appointment will be made next week, and it will be either Hall or Adams, with the odds in favor of the latter.

CITY SOLICITOR READ

Buys the De Veau Residence on Summit Street.

Wm. Read Secures the Handsome Property at a Bargain—Buys It For a Home.

He has purchased the De Veau property between Bush and Magnolia streets, on lower Summit street, for $15,000.

The tract is 153 feet fronting on Summit street and is 330 feet deep. It has on it a very large and fine residence. He proposes improving it and making it his residence.

Property seems to be advancing in value on lower Summit. A year or so ago the same tract sold for $13,000, and it is said to be to-day worth $20,000.

There is quite a boom in First ward real estate. There have been several quiet deals in dirt in that ward during the week.

GOLD IS BECOMING SCARCE

Production is Constantly on the Decrease.

Some Interesting Facts About This Precious Metal—Many Valuable Fields Failing.

There is no joke about it, affirms the Washington Star. The gold production of the world is steadily decreasing from year to year, and it will not be very long before the supply is practically used up. Not more than $100,000,000 worth of the precious metal is now mined annually, and this is not nearly enough to meet the requirements of expanding commerce. Of course, new deposits will be discovered from time to time, but they will soon be exhausted.

Why is gold so rare? Simply because it is heavy. There are only two metals that are heavier, namely, platinum and iridum. Remember that at the beginning the earth was a body of gas. By gradual condensation it became liquid, while now the whole of its mass, save only an outer crust much thinner in proportion to the whole bulk than is the shell of an egg, would be a fluid but for the fact that it is held together by tremendous pressure. Naturally, in the course of its fomation about a center of attraction, the weightier particles composing the globe gathered about the center. Accordingly we find that the earth as a whole weighs five times as much as water, while the rocks forming the crust are only about two and one-half times as heavy as water.

In ancient times gold was obtained abundantly from the rivers of Asia. The sands of Pactolus, the golden fleece secured by the Argonauts, the yellow metal of Ophir, the fable of King Midas, all illustrate the eastern origin of gold. Alexander the Great brought nearly $500,000,000 of gold from Persia. Gold also came from Arabia and from the middle of Africa by way of the Nile. But all of these famous sources of supply were long ago hausted.

Brazil, which only a century ago was the richest of gold-producing countries, has now ceased to be largely productive. The total output of the metal from that part of the world from the end of the sixteenth century until now is estimated at $700,000,000. All the famous gold coast of Africa does not at present yield as much as $400,000 a year. Yet the dark continent was formerly noted as the country of gold. Mummies have been numerously found in Egypt with massive necklaces and other ornaments of the metal.

Herodotus tells us of a king who loaded his prisoners with golden chains, that substance being more common than bronze. Copper was even worn for ornament in preference to gold. The treasures brought by the Queen of Sheba to Solomon's Temple must have been of enormous value. Since the year 1500 Africa has produced about $500,000,000 worth of gold, but the supply is nearly used up now.

The supplies of gold drawn from the United States are steadily diminishing. It is the same way with Australia, which has yielded for the world's use about $1,300,000 worth of the metal. Not less than $7,000,000,000 worth of gold has been dug in all countries since Columbus discovered America, 400 years ago.

To make a spool of thread the very best Sea Island cotton is used. This is taken in the raw state and torn to pieces by a machine called a breaker. It is then freed from its impurities by several other machines, after which it taken up by a "slipper" and twisted into soft yarn. Several strands of this are twisted into one fine thread; three of these are then twisted together, making the six cord thread, which, after being bleached, is ready to sell.

HEALTH OF ITALIAN CITIES.

Naples and Rome Have Been Purged of Many Evils.

Naples and Rome owe their evil reputation to a state of things which no longer exists. Until a few years ago Naples drew all its water from wells, and typhoid fever was virtually epidemic in the city. Since the introduction of the Serino water and the closing of the wells the disease has almost disappeared. In Rome before it became the capital the drainage was bad, and in spite of the numerous acqueducts a large number of wells were in use. The Italian government has thoroughly drained the city, and when the cholera last appeared in Italy the government closed the wells, which still remain closed. The result has been to reduce the deaths from typhoid fever to less than three per week in a population of 415,000.

There is another popular superstition that Rome is unhealthy in summer. As it happens the death rate is much lower in summer than in winter. It is lowest in May and June, when it is 18 and 19 per thousand, and highest in February and March, when, owing to the prevalence of diseases of the throat and lungs, it reaches 30 and 32 per thousand. It is higher in September than in July or August, for the reason that the peasants who are harvesting on the Campagna are often smitten with fever and are brought into the hospitals. But even then it is much lower than it is in the winter months. The deaths from malarial fevers in Rome average a little more than five per week, and a very large proportion of these deaths are those of peasants and inhabitants of unhealthy villages, who are brought from the surrounding country to the Roman hospitals.

The prevalence of typhoid fever in Florence cannot be denied. It is due to bad drainage and the use of well water. The municipality is, however, determined to rectify this state of things without delay, and if the measures recommended by Sir Douglas Galton in the report he has made to the Synnic are carried out, as there is little doubt that they will be, Florence will become as healthy as Rome or Naples.—N. Y. Herald.

To prevent fevers, keep the liver active and the bowels regular with Simmons Liver Regulator.

TWELVE TUMORS

Successfully Removed by Dr. Kalkhoff, the European Specialst,

From the Nasal Cavities of Mrs. Geo. Siebecker, 112 Nebraska Ave.

Close upon the heels of the remarkable cure of Miss Sadie Elliott comes another voluntary testimonial of Dr. Kalkhoff's skill. This time the lady is none other than Mrs. Geo. Siebecker, of 112 Nebraska avenue. This lady, like many others, had tried in vain to get cured of a desperate case of catarrh which had not only produced a terrible condition of the nasal cavities, but had poisoned the delicate membranes of the throat and bronchial tubes. The blighting influence of the disease had also affected the lady's eyes and ears.

When Mrs. Siebecker presented herself for treatment at the extensive offices, surgery and laboratory of Dr. Kalkhoff, the skilled European specialist at 505 and 507 Summit street, between Oak and Orange streets, it was found necessary to remove 12 tumors from her nasal cavities. Those tumors were not only removed without pain, but the catarrhal poison which was the mainspring of the disease, was completely eradicated from the system by Dr. Kalkhoff's imported specific vegetable remedies. These remedies can only be properly prepared by an expert chemist and herbalist like Dr. Kalkhoff.

Another important medical factor employed by Dr. Kalkhoff in completely curing Mrs. Siebecker's complicated case of catarrh, was his original system of compressed medicated air and gases. These gases are breathed directly from the generating apparatus into all the cavities of the head, nose, throat and lungs, where the cheap and quack process of liquid sprays cannot penetrate. The great advantage of Dr. Kalkhoff's scientific process of breathing the medicines direct to all the remote diseased cavities of the head and respiratory organs, will be apparent to every thinking person. The remarkable thing about this process of Dr. Kalkhoff's is that it promotes the growth of a new and healthy membrane that is not affected by the climatic changes which cause a chronic state of irritation called catarrh.

Dr. Kalkhoff's method of completely eradicating the disease from the system with vegetable remedies, and of promoting the growth of a new mucous membrane with medicated gases is the secret of his remarkable success in effecting a permanent cure of the worst cases of catarrh. The public is cordially invited to inspect Dr. Kalkhoff's special department for the treatment of catarrh and all nose, ear, throat and lung diseases. It is completely equiped with all the latest scientific apparatuses and appliances, and is the most extensive establishment of the kind in the United States.

FREE TREATMENT WEDNESDAY,

At Ladies' Hair Bazaar, 519 Adams St. Those ladies who accepted Madame Matthews' invitation to try the medicated vapor treatment when she visited Toledo some weeks ago, will be delighted to avail themselves of another opportunity which will be presented to them Wednesday by Mrs. Painter, who has been thoroughly trained by Madame Matthews to give the treatment as effectively as she herself administered it. It needs no recommendation to those who have tried it, as they have proved its virtues, especially its efficiency in removing wrinkles, which it does entirely. Those ladies who regretted having delayed calling upon Madame Matthews until too late, will now have a chance to visit Mrs. Painter and renew the freshness and beauty of their complexions. The process is delightful, cleansing and invigorating, giving nourishment to the skin, which soon assumes the firmness and smoothness of youth, and fills out the wrinkles. Mrs. Painter will sell complete outfits for those who wish to treat themselves, besides all the creams and preparations used by Madame Matthews. They are not cosmetics but really skin foods. Mrs. Rhines will also have a department where she will give a specimen of her art in manicuring to those desiring to test her skill.

"NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS"

Is an old time saw, and in our case has proved a very truthful one indeed.

OUR GREAT SPECIAL SALE OF BOYS' SUITS!

The past week has been a gigantic success. We have had Boys' Suit Sales and Boys' Suit Sales, but the present sale has far outstripped all preceding ones in volume of goods sold. Again we have demonstrated the fact that when we advertise a thing the people have confidence in what we say. "IF YOU SEE IT IN OUR 'AD,' IT'S SO"—now goes without saying—we have proven it to them time and again. And now to business. The success of this sale has thoroughly convinced us THE PEOPLE ARE WITH US, AND WE SHALL STAND BY THE PEOPLE.

OUR LIBERAL OFFER ON BOYS' SUITS!

Will stand good for one week more. If you have not already looked our bargains over, don't neglect to do so before it is too late—and if you want to save money (you do of course) call upon us and we will readily satisfy you that ours is the only Clothing Store where you can do this. The goods we offer during this sale are no job lots of cheap and poorly made suits, but are selected from our regular stock. The goods and styles are first-class, and there is no sham or humbug about the matter. We again quote the prices of our Special Sale of Boys' Suits:

BOYS' SUITS, 98c, $1.98, $2.98, $3.98, $4.98.

THIS IS WHAT THEY ARE—The 98c Suits were sold at $2 and $2.50 (and were worth it). The $1.98 Suits were sold at $3 and $3.50 (and were worth it). The $2.98 Suits were sold at $4 (and were worth it). The $3.98 Suits were sold at from $5 to $6 (and were worth it). The $4.98 Suits were sold at $6.50, $7 and $7.50 (and were worth it).

REMEMBER—You have the Largest and Handsomest Stock in the City to select from.

GENTLEMEN—Your attention, please! Are you aware of the style and class of goods we are selling during OUR SPECIAL SALE of $10, $12 AND $15 SUITS?

If not you ought to be. We show you an excellent assortment of CHOICE FABRICS made in the latest and approved styles; the workmanship is the best and the fit we guarantee. We have an immense stock for your inspection, and all the Popular Shades, Weaves and Colorings of the day are to be found in it.

NOTE—We guarantee the fabrics of above Suits to be the same as tailors ask and get $25 and $30 for.

NOTICE.

John Mattoon, executor of the will of Rebecca Sibley, deceased, of Drain, Oregon, Charles R. Holmes, of Constantine, Michigan, Jonathan Holmes and Angeline Holmes of South Rockwood, Michigan, Elizabeth Hunt, of Niles, Michigan, Peter Pecott, of Quincy, Michigan, Rachel Lewis Jacobs, Michael Jacobs, Peter Lewis and Ann Lewis, all of Deerfield, Michigan, Margaret Lewis Culver and Alonzo Culver, of Cadillac, Michigan, Elizabeth Lewis Turner, of Blissfield, Michigan, Charles Lewis, Ella Lewis, and Jennie Lewis, all of Petersburg, Michigan, and the unknown heirs and devisees of Rebecca Sibley, deceased, are hereby notified that on the 16th day of May, 1892, Elizabeth L. Nye, as plaintiff, filed against them and others as defendants, in the clerk's office in the court of common pleas of Lucas county, Ohio, her petition, alleging that she is the owner in fee simple, has the legal title to and is in actual possession of the north half (1-2) of the west one-eighth (1-8) of the northwest quarter (1-4) of section twenty-two (22), town nine (9) south, range seven (7) east, containing ten (10) acres of land, more or less, situate in Washington township of Lucas county, Ohio.

The said defendants appear of record and claim to have an interest in said real estate; that in fact said defendants or either of them have no interest in said real estate, and said petition prays that the defendants may be decreed to have no interest in said real estate and be forever barred of claiming any interest therein, and that plaintiff may be quieted in her title to said real estate as against said defendants.

Said defendants are required to file their answer in said action, which is still pending, on or before the 16th day of July, 1892, or be forever barred of any interest in said lands.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

You want your son and your daughter also, to attend the School where they will receive the best instruction and have the advantages to be derived from the most modern, practical and thorough courses. You want this, regardless of the slight difference in expense there might be between

A GOOD SCHOOL AND A POOR SCHOOL.

Having enthusiastic instructors, skilled specialists who have had from six to sixteen years' experience in teaching and who are furnished with every modern office and school appliance which will enable them to do superior work in the school room, and offering a course of instruction pronounced by business men and graduates of other schools, far superior to that of similar institutions, then

WE MUST HAVE A GOOD SCHOOL.

While we have a School second to none, the expense of a course with us is no greater than that of inferior schools. Send for circulars or come in and talk it over.
